

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

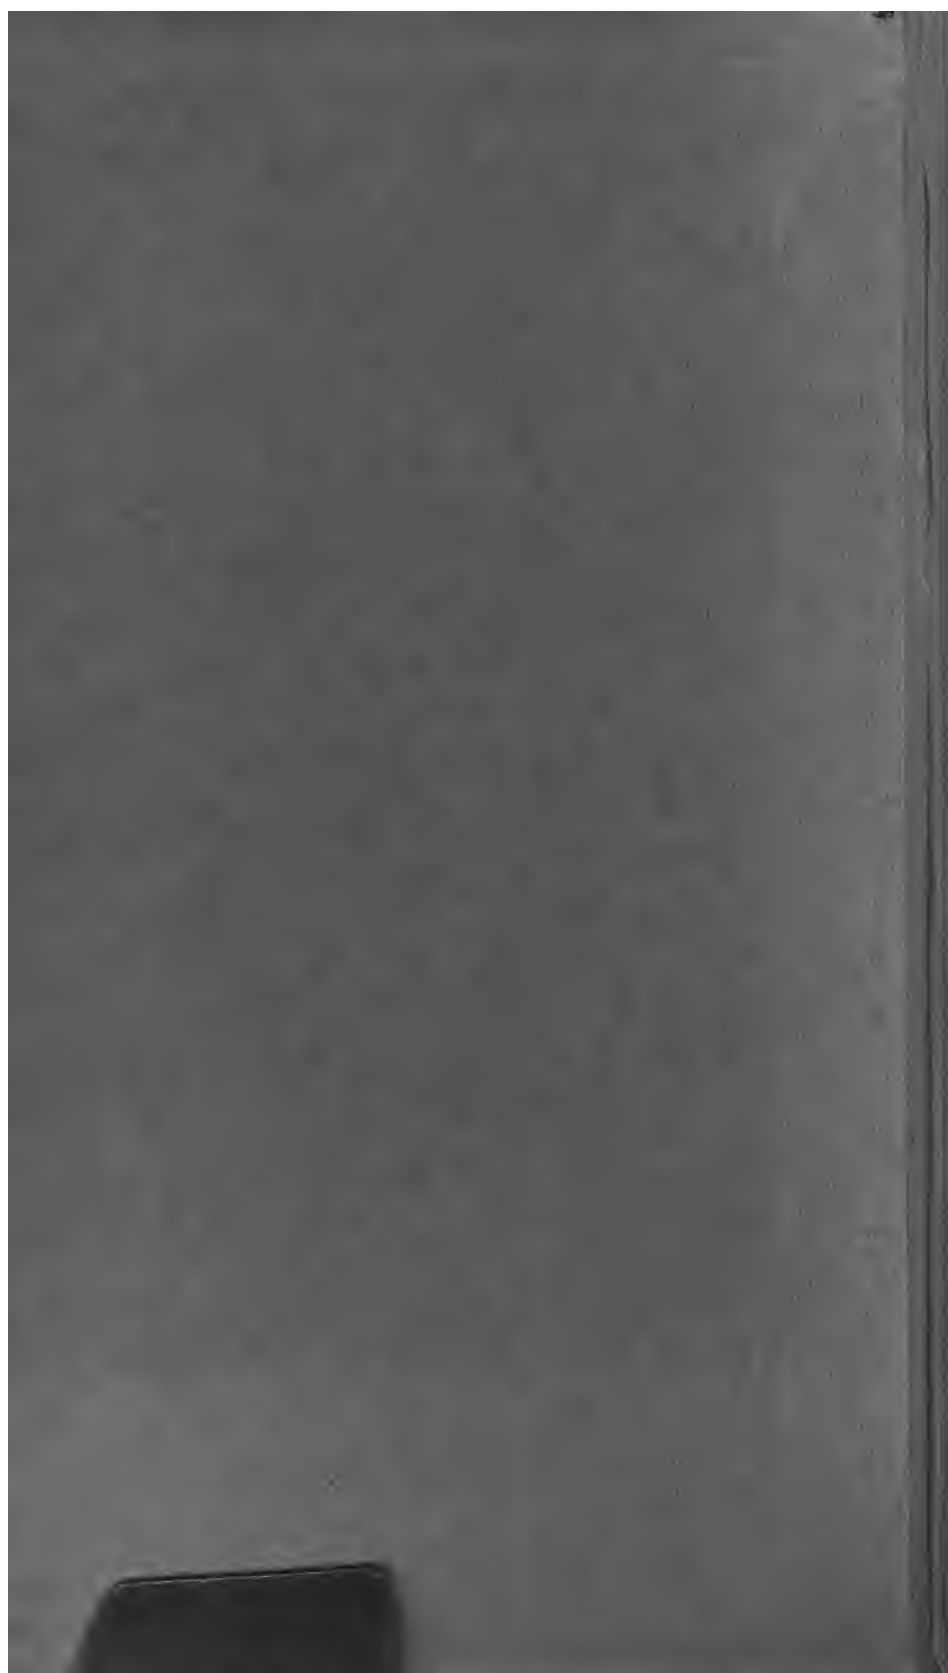

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

NOTE.—Of these churches, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted in the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

JOURNAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION.

NEW YORK,
Wednesday, November 14, 1906.

THIS being the day appointed by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of New York, for the meeting of the Annual Convention, a number of the clergy and laity assembled for divine service at 10 o'clock in the Crypt of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York City, the place appointed by the Bishop for that purpose.

The Rt. Rev. C. B. Brewster, D.D., Bishop of Connecticut, preached the sermon.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. H. C. Potter, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rt. Rev. David H. Greer, D.D., Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese; the Rt. Rev. C. B. Brewster, D.D., Bishop of Connecticut; the Rt. Rev. Frederick Courtney, D.D., Rector of St. James' Church, New York; the Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D., Archdeacon of Westchester; the Rev. A. T. Ashton, D.D., Archdeacon of Dutchess; the Rev. George F. Nelson, D.D., Archdeacon of New York; the Rev. S. C. Armour, Canon of Liverpool Cathedral; the Rev. Thos. R. Harris, D.D., Secretary of Convention; the Rev. Ernest Voorhis, Ph.D., the Rev. R. E. Jones, D.D., and the Rev. John Cornell, Canons of the Cathedral.

At the close of the service the Convention assembled in the Synod Hall for the business session.

The Secretary laid before the Convention written proof that a constitutional quorum of both orders was present, and, on motion, the calling of the roll was dispensed with in accordance with the provisions of Canon II., Sec. 15.

The President declared the Convention duly organized for business.

The Rev. W. H. Vibbert, D.D., nominated the Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., for Secretary of Convention and moved that the ballot be dispensed with, which was adopted; and Dr. Harris was elected Secretary.

Mr. Geo. Macculloch Miller nominated Mr. Richard M. Pott as Treasurer of Convention and moved that the ballot be dispensed with, which was adopted and Mr. Pott was elected.

Rev. Henry Barker presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Rules of Order of this Convention be referred to the Committee on Canons, with a view to their revision, so that due provision be made for action by the Bishop Coadjutor in the absence or disability of the Bishop; and for the Annual Address of the Bishop Coadjutor; and also on such other points as shall be considered by the Committee necessary to secure the due status of the Bishop Coadjutor in the Convention.

On motion of Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson, the following proposed amendments to the Canons were referred to the Committee on Canons.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO CANON XVIII. SEC. 3 [III.]

Resolved, That the first sentence of Sub-section (III.) of Section 3, of Canon XVIII. entitled, "Of the Diocesan Missionary Society," be and hereby the same is amended, so as to read as follows:

"The Executive Officer or Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be elected by such Archdeaconry at a regular meeting, and shall continue in office until his successor shall have been similarly elected, and shall be prepared to assume the duties of the office. Every such election shall be made by the Archdeaconry from three or more clergymen of the diocese whose names shall have been proposed by the Bishop; and the balloting upon such nominations shall begin at the regular meeting of the Archdeaconry held first after the receipt of such nominations."

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO CANON X. SECTION 3.

Resolved, That the last two sentences of Section 3 of Canon X. be amended so as to read as follows:

"In like manner, from time to time the Bishop shall designate one of the Provisional Deputies to supply, either temporarily or permanently, any vacancy caused by the death, absence or inability of any Deputy. During such period as shall be stated in the certificate issued to him by the Bishop, the Provisional Deputy so designated shall possess, and shall be entitled to exercise, the power and authority of the Deputy in place of whom he shall have been designated."

The Rev. Dr. R. E. Jones moved the following resolution, which was adopted:

Whereas, On this fourteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1784, the Rev. Samuel Seabury, D.D., was, at Aberdeen, Scotland, consecrated first Bishop of Connecticut, and whereas this Convention meets for the first time in the history of the Diocese of New York, on this day;

And Whereas, This happy coincidence has been commemorated by a sermon preached by the Bishop of Connecticut, the Right Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., at the request of the Bishop of this Diocese; therefore:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be and they are hereby presented to the Right Rev. the Bishop of Connecticut for his kind consent in joining with us in this happy commemoration of an event from which have issued such vast and memorable results to New England and this whole land; and, that this Convention requests, from the Right Rev. the Bishop of Connecticut, a copy of his sermon for publication.

The Rev. J. M. Chew moved the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, that sufficient copies of the Right Rev. Bishop of Connecticut's sermon be printed for distribution to the clergy and vestrymen of the various parishes and missions in union with this Convention.

The Bishop of the Diocese presented Canon Armour of the Cathedral of Liverpool, and, on motion, he was invited to a seat on the floor of this Convention.

The Chair announced the following Standing Committees:

For Provisional Deputies to General Convention.

Clerical Vote: The Rev. ELBERT FLOYD-JONES.	Mr. GEO. S. CLARKE.
Lay Vote: The Rev. N. A. SEAGLE.	Mr. DOUGLAS MERRITT.

The Secretary offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the election of the Standing Committee, of Deputies to the Federate Council, of Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention be made the special Order of the Day on Thursday, immediately after the Convention be called to order, and that the Inspectors of Election be directed to take their places in the Model Room and there receive the ballots for such officers, in order that the other business of Convention may go on at the same time without disorder and interruption.

The Secretary announced that he had appointed as Assistant Secretaries the Rev. Romaine S. Mansfield, the Rev. Robert Morris Kemp, and the Rev. Robert Van Kleeck Harris.

The Bishop of the Diocese read his Annual Address (see Appendix A.), and after announcing the names of Bishops of the Church, and of Clergy and Laity of the Diocese who had died during the year, called the Convention to Prayer, which was said by the Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D., the Archdeacon of Orange.

The Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D., Archdeacon of Orange, moved that the Report of the Missionary Committee be made the Order of the Day for Thursday at 11 o'clock.

The Secretary presented the following notification from the Secretary of the General Convention:

THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

To the Convention (or Council) of the Diocese of New York:

In compliance with the requirement of Article XI. of the Constitution, I hereby make known that the following alteration of the Constitution of the Church is proposed: to wit, that comprised in the resolution printed herewith, said resolution having been constitutionally adopted by a General Convention held in the city of Boston, in October, A.D. 1904:

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

That Article I., Section 6 of the Constitution be amended by adding after the words "of the United States" the words "and one Clerical and one Lay Deputy chosen by the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe."

HENRY ANSTICE,

Secretary of the House of Deputies.

NEW YORK,
March 1, A. D. 1905.

The Secretary presented the following communication:

NEW ORLEANS, LA.,
January 1, 1906.

THE REV. T. R. HARRIS, D.D.,
Secretary of New York.

REV. AND DEAR SIR:

The Joint Committee appointed at the last General Convention, with reference to the Memorial presented to the Convention by the Twentieth Annual Conference of Church workers among the colored people, instructed their Sub-Committee to procure statistics and information.

In fulfillment of this duty, we are proceeding to secure expressions concerning the "Canon on Special Missionary Bishops" which the Conference proposed to the Convention, with a petition for its adoption.

A copy of the Memorial and proposed Canon is enclosed.

We seek such expression from the Council of the Diocese of New York as will indicate whether they consider our present organization adequate for this work, or whether they favor the Canon as proposed by the Conference, or, in case they do not favor the Canon and do favor some change, what change they would propose.

We respectfully address this inquiry to the Council, having addressed a similar inquiry to the Bishop, and we beg such statement of the view of the Council for the information of the Joint Committee as the Council may deem it proper and advisable to make.

Faithfully yours,
DAVIS SESSUMS,
EDMUND N. JOYNER,
B. LAWTON WIGGINS,

Sub-Committee.

Rev. Dr. Vibbert moved that this matter be referred to a special committee of three, which was adopted.

The Chair appointed the Rev. Dr. Vibbert, the Rev. Dr. J. Lewis Parks, and Mr. Theodore K. Gibbs.

Mr. G. Macculloch Miller presented the following memorial and moved its reference to the Clerical and Lay Deputies of the Diocese of New York, who shall report what action thereon is desirable, which was adopted.

THE CHURCH CLUB OF NEW YORK,
53 East Fifty-sixth Street.

To the Convention of the Diocese of New York:

This memorial of the Church Club of New York respectfully sheweth:
That the matter of a reduction in the membership of the General Convention of the Church has been carefully considered by it; and that, at the close of a discussion, held at its stated meeting on the thirty-first ultimo, the Club unanimously resolved to transmit to the Diocesan Convention, soon to assemble, a copy of the letter addressed to it, at its request, by the Lay Deputies from this Diocese to the last General Convention, and a copy of the paper read at the meeting by Vice-President Stetson of the Club, and to solicit for these documents and the important questions presented in them the consideration of the Convention.

CHURCH CLUB OF NEW YORK,

53 East Fifty-sixth Street, New York.

From the Minutes of the Board of Trustees of the Church Club, New York, January 3, 1906.

"Resolved, That the Lay Deputies from this Diocese to the last General Convention (all of them being members of this club) be requested to communicate to this Board their views upon the suggestion to reduce the membership of the General Convention as proposed at the last National Conference of Church Clubs."

January 9, 1906.

DEAR SIR:

At the last meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Church Club of New York, the following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That the Lay Deputies from this Diocese to the last General Convention (all of them being members of this Club) be requested to communicate to this Board their views upon the suggestion to reduce the membership of the General Convention as proposed at the last National Conference of Church Clubs."

The matter referred to in this resolution was communicated to the Board of Trustees by the Secretary of the National Conference of Church Clubs, in the following terms: "At the Thirteenth Conference held at Cleveland, May 4th and 5th last, the two resolutions hereunder were passed. It is desired that the Clubs carefully consider the same and instruct their delegates to the next Conference, which will meet in Rochester, April 25th and 26th, 1906: First: At the conclusion of the discussion following the paper read by Judge Holden, President of the Church Club of Chicago, upon the topic: 'The General Convention, Has the House of Deputies become numerically too large? If it has, what is the remedy?' Resolved that the several Clubs, members of this Conference, are requested to consider the question and to communicate to the secretary of the next National Conference, their several opinions concerning the expediency of a memorial by the Clubs to the next General Convention upon this subject."

I am instructed by the Board of Trustees to communicate to you the action of the Board and to ask you to favor the Board with an expression of your opinion.

Yours truly,

GEORGE ZABRISKIE.

GEORGE ZABRISKIE, ESQ.,
Secretary Pro Tem., Church Club,
49 Wall Street, New York.

NEW YORK, January 22, 1906.

DEAR SIR:

We have received your letter of January 9th, 1906, addressed to us jointly as the Lay Deputies to the General Convention from the Diocese of New York. In this you transmit a Resolution of the Board of Trustees of the Church Club of New York which referred to a communication from the National Conference of Church Clubs in regard to the reduction of the membership of the General Convention.

The House of Deputies undoubtedly has become unwieldy because of the large membership, and as new Dioceses are added this evil will increase. We believe that a reduction in membership is desirable and that steps should be taken to secure a smaller body; but many and great difficulties will arise, and experience indicates that strong opposition will be encountered to any plan that may be proposed. It is only by education of the members of the Church that anything will be accomplished, and for this reason the contemplated action by the National Conference of Church Clubs will be of great importance in developing public opinion. The present membership is based upon an equal number of delegates from each Diocese without regard to size. The fairest plan to secure a reduction would be to change the representation so that it should be based on the number of communicants in each Diocese or upon the number of Clergy canonically resident therein, and then having decided on a much smaller number of delegates to apportion them according to the membership or the number of communicants among the various Dioceses. This remedy would probably meet with considerable opposition. Another plan to secure the reduction would be to carry out the proposal made and rejected at the Minneapolis Convention that the number of Delegates from each Diocese should be reduced to three Clerical and three Lay Deputies. This change would cause a reduction in the membership of the Convention by one-fourth, and would reduce the chances of a deadlock in the vote of a delegation, something which may occur when every deputation is so constituted that its members may divide equally. Reduction in view of this existing difficulty may be practicable, but, as above observed, only through the active and efficient work of such influential Church organizations as the Church Clubs throughout the country.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) J. PIERPONT MORGAN,
FRANCIS LYNDE STETSON,
W. BAYARD CUTTING,
HENRY LEWIS MORRIS,

Respectfully submitted,

IN THE MATTER OF REFORM IN REPRESENTATION OF THE DIOCESES IN THE HOUSE OF DEPUTIES OF THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

ADDRESS BY FRANCIS LYNDE STETSON

Before the Church Club of New York, October 31st, 1906.

How the Church in the several dioceses should be represented in the House of Deputies, is a question arising out of two pressing conditions of discontent. The first is the overgrown size of the body, now exceeding and necessarily increasing beyond the limits of reasonable conference and discussion. The second is the gross and unjust inequality in the representation of the communicants in the several dioceses, resulting from the arbitrary allowance of eight deputies to every diocese regardless of the number or the amount of its churches, or institutions, or congregations, or communicants, or offerings.

These two conditions may be discussed in the order of their serious importance.

The excessive and unwieldy size of the House of Deputies as a deliberative body is an evil obvious to every attentive observer.

During the General Convention of 1904 there were in actual attendance 258 Clerical Deputies and 205 Lay Deputies. Of these 463 gentlemen, at least two-thirds had been accustomed to participate in public speech or debate, and had been selected with some reference to that qualification. The possibility of speech by every deputy was contemplated also in the rules of the House, for there is no rule authorizing closure; and the introduction of a motion tending to stifle debate, such as the motion to lay on the table or the motion to take a vote at a time certain, always excites more or less amiable resentment and protest; and theoretically every deputy may speak fifteen minutes in each debate.

This right, of course, is illusory; for if exercised only once by each deputy, it would consume 115 hours; while from beginning to end the Convention of 1904 was in legislative session for only 67 hours. Various and serious questions were in keen dispute by many instructive speakers who necessarily were curtailed, sometimes to the disadvantage of the House, because time did not suffice for them and for others seeking and often denied the opportunity of adequate expression of their opinions. As the result of observation in six general conventions, I am convinced that for profitable discussion in an assemblage of such brief duration 300 is the maximum limit of membership.

Besides inconvenience in discussion, may be considered the minor incident of the needless cost to the Church of providing for nearly 200 unnecessary deputies, a cost which in each three years amounts at least to $20,000, besides consuming the equivalent of 600 weeks of attendance; all of which might well be devoted to other purposes of the Church.

There can be no doubt that the size of our House of Deputies is too large, and that unless, by declining to form new dioceses, we shall immediately check the growth of the Church, the body already unwieldy must continuously increase.

The portentous inconvenience of this condition was foreseen, and a sort of a remedy indicated by the General Convention of 1895 through a constitutional provision (Article II., Sec. 4) that "The General Convention by canon may reduce the representation to not fewer than two deputies in each order."

Under this provision, a reduction of the deputies to three in each order from each diocese would obviate the present inconvenience of deadlock, and to that extent would be advantageous.

But it would seem impossible that any considerable number of churchmen—certainly not the Church Club of New York—would seriously advise canonical action under this provision, which would allow to the 399 clergy and to the 78,000 communicants of the Diocese of New York each only two representatives, the same as Michigan City with only 25 clergy and 2,243 communicants. The activity, the diversity and the intensity of the Christian work in the great metropolitan parishes merit adequate representation in the council of the Church, of which a denial certainly would lead to a checking of interest and consequent detriment to the Church at large. Each of the five Archdeaconries of New York is of diocesan proportions, and the Archdeaconry of New York contains many parishes burning in Christian zeal and fruitfulness, whose views of the proper principles and policy of the Church find inadequate expression under existing conditions, and would find still less under a remedial provision reducing our representation to two deputies in each order.

Before discussing the most desirable remedy of the existing evil, I may, in passing, express the belief that conditions would not be changed materially by the creation of a system of provinces, whether without uniformity under the existing constitutional provision that enables any diocese to decline to be included in a province, or uniform, under some constitutional amendment hereafter to be passed. Even after a general organization of provinces, there would remain important and far-reaching questions, which could be answered only by the supreme general council of the Church in the United States, adequately expressing the decisively preponderant thought of its loyal communicants.

This brings us to our second question, viz., How should justly equal representation of the Church in its several dioceses be secured in the House of Deputies?

At the outset, I declare my firm conviction that this justly equal representation does not obtain, and never can obtain, under any provision treating each diocese as a unit exactly similar to every other diocese in need and right of equal numerical representation in each of the two houses of the General Convention.

In the plan originally proposed by Bishop White for the organization of the Church in the United States, there was a general conformity to the plan of the Federal Union adopted later in 1789, but in giving to the several dioceses or States exactly equal numerical representation both in the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies, our spiritual forefathers were less farseeing than were their fellow-statesmen, who in framing the Federal Constitution secured to the several States equal numerical representation in the upper chamber, but in the lower house only proportional representation.

This was due perhaps to the fact that Bishop White's outline antedated the Federal Constitution, and perhaps also to the fact that at the outset the participating dioceses were not widely different in the number of communicants; that coinciding in area with the several States, they were hesitant to surrender their separate organizations; and that they were so few in number that a considerable representation from each was necessary to constitute a convention of sufficient size to be effective. Indeed, the idea of Bishop White was that there should be but one house, in which the three orders should sit together, but vote separately, an idea which he yielded upon the insistence of Bishop Seabury, who on his part consented, though reluctantly, to the admission of the laity. The House of Deputies, therefore, was a creation of compromise, not of a single intelligent purpose. The illogical, arbitrary equal representation of every diocese at the beginning can find no justification either in reason or in practice suitable for the Church of 1904, which comprised 62 dioceses with 760,948 communicants, and, besides, 25 missionary districts. Of the 62 dioceses, 24 had more and 38 had fewer than 10,000 communicants. The extremes were New York with 78,298, and Michigan City with 2,243 communicants. Several of the missionary districts had more communicants than belonged to several of the dioceses.

In the aggregate, the 24 larger dioceses had 571,620 communicants, as against 189,328 in the 38 lesser dioceses. In other words, two-thirds of the communicants can cast only about two-fifths of the votes! Indeed, in the aggregate, the 38 lesser dioceses had fewer communicants than the largest five—Connecticut, Long Island, Massachusetts, New York and Pennsylvania. Under no consideration of fairness can such a disparity be sustained. It can be continued only by applying in the Church of Christ the rule of Macgregor—

“That they should take who have the power,
And they should keep who can.”

No such arbitrary rule could receive the continuing approval of our brethren in the dioceses excessively represented, if once they were convinced of its injustice in actual operation, and also of a sincere and earnest desire in behalf of hundreds of thousands of loyal churchmen now without adequate representation. I cannot doubt that an appeal to our godly brethren for the good of the Church would receive sympathetic and effective response much more speedily than that which in Great Britain, in 1832, resulted in the reform of a similarly unfair parliamentary representation, though, I regret to recall, despite the opposition of the Bishopric.

Simply as a tentative suggestion for our reform, it might be possible to consider the following plan, based on the latest figures available—those of 1904.

Of the 62 dioceses, having 760,948 communicants, 11 had each more than 20,000, and in the aggregate 373,604, or almost exactly one-half of the communicants. If to each of the 62 dioceses there should be assigned arbitrarily and equally two deputies in each order, there would be left for allotment in each order 26 deputies in a reduced House of 150 clergy and 150 laymen. If these 26 deputies in each order were apportioned ratably among the eleven dioceses with more than 20,000 communicants, the result would be approximately as follows:

1. New York.....	78,298	5 + 2 = 7
2. Pennsylvania.....	51,753	3 + 2 = 5
3. Massachusetts.....	35,617	2 + 2 = 4
4. Connecticut.....	34,618	2 + 2 = 4
5. Long Island.....	34,142	2 + 2 = 4
6. Newark.....	26,665	2 + 2 = 4
7. Western New York.....	23,520	2 + 2 = 4
8. Albany.....	23,195	2 + 2 = 4
9. Maryland.....	23,090	2 + 2 = 4
10. Chicago.....	22,056	2 + 2 = 4
11. Central New York.....	20,650	2 + 2 = 4
	<hr/> 373,604	<hr/> 26 + 22 = 48

Under this arrangement, the 11 dioceses having approximately one-half of the total Church population, would still have less than one-third of the representatives. In each order, New York would gain three over her present representation; Pennsylvania would gain one; Massachusetts, Connecticut, Long Island, Newark, Western New York, Albany, Maryland,

Chicago and Central New York each would stand as at present; and all other dioceses, including those hereafter formed, would have two instead of four; such a gradual increase in the total number being comparatively negligible.

In a House of Deputies thus constituted, the larger dioceses still would receive scant justice, but their present grievance would be ameliorated; and as a whole the body would become more effective, and the average ability in the representation of the Church would be raised; for in the reduction from 463 members to 300, it would not be the best qualified who would be dropped.

As may be observed upon consideration of the character of the 11 larger dioceses, the altered proportions would not affect the disposition of the body towards the moot questions of use or doctrine in the Church. The opportunity for full and free discussion would be enlarged. Above all, it would become possible to compress within fewer days the purely legislative work, and thus to increase the number of hours, nay, of days, available for that work which is the greatest privilege of the Church, and whose consideration should be and generally is the greatest joy of the faithful sons and daughters of the Church in the great triennial gathering—the development and extension of its missions at home and abroad.

The journal of 1904 shows that in all only ten hours were allowed to all the missions; and not more than forty minutes to any missionary in which to recite the wonderful tale of his wonderful work, too little known at home. It is almost incredible that for the discussion of rules of order or of conduct there should have been allowed at least seven hours, as compared with each hour in which the spiritual life and growth of the Church of Christ was the fruitful and helpful topic of prayer and praise and lofty exhortation. The enlargement and extension of the period for presenting the cause of missions in itself would justify the reduction of the House of Deputies to such size as to enable it promptly to accomplish its necessary formal work, and to leave ample opportunity for our loftier and spiritual work—the advancement of Missions.

The Convention took a recess of one hour for luncheon.

On reassembling, Mr. W. N. Wilmer offered the following resolution and moved its reference to the Committee on Canons.

Resolved, That Canon 17 be amended by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 4, to read as follows:

All treasurers of Churches and of all charitable and other institutions connected with Churches, and all custodians of funds belonging to such Churches or charitable or other institutions, shall be required to give security or be jointly responsible with a trust company for the faithful care and protection of such funds. And all expenses incident to giving such security shall be defrayed out of the said funds.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the Report of the Committee on Incorporation and Admission of Parishes and recommended that Trinity Church, New Dorp, All Saints', Mariners' Harbor, St. Alban's Church, Highbridge, and the Church of the Divine Love, Montrose, be admitted into union with the Convention, which was adopted.

The Secretary presented the Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention.

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE AND PROPERTY OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF NEW YORK, FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 24, 1906.

The following is a list of the various Trusts:

Diocesan House, 29 Lafayette Place, and an Endowment Fund of $50,000, the income of which is to be expended for its support and maintenance. The real estate is leased to the Bishop and the entire income paid to him.

Land, Church Building, Rectory, Parish House and Schoolhouse at Eighty-ninth Street and Madison Avenue, leased to the Church of the Beloved Disciple. Endowment Fund and securities of the par value of $186,493.03, the income of which is to be applied to the maintenance and preservation of the church and its work, but no income shall be expended for alterations to the church or for a Mission Church.

Land, Burial Plot and Glebe Plot, with Church Building, Parish House and Rectory, near Scarborough, Westchester County, leased to St. Mary's Church, Beechwood. Endowment Fund of $9,206.82, the income to be expended for repairs and conducting services in the church.

Land and Church Buildings at Cruger's, Westchester County, occupied by the Church of the Divine Love.

Land, Church Buildings and Rectory at Verplanck's, Westchester County, occupied by St. Barnabas' Church.

Land and Church Buildings at Rosendale, Ulster County, occupied by All Saints' Church.

Land and Church Buildings at Yonkers, leased to Christ Church.

Land and Church Building at Tuxedo Park, occupied by St. Mary's Church.

Land at Ellenville, Ulster County, with Church Building and Rectory, leased to St. John's Memorial Church.

Land and Church Building at Newburgh, leased to the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Endowment Fund of $5,500, the income to be paid semi-annually to the Pastor, Rector, or other head of St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church, in the town of Bedford, Westchester County, in addition to his regular salary.

Land and Church Building known as the Worthington Memorial Church of St. Joseph of Arimathea, in the town of Greenburgh. Endowment Fund of $5,000, the income of which is to be applied to the repair and maintenance of the church and grounds.

The title to the land occupied by St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal Church of Mamaroneck, Westchester County, is to revert to this corporation upon the failure of the parish, which holds a conditional title, to carry out the terms of the grants of the property.

An Endowment Fund for this parish, consisting of bonds of the West Shore Railroad Company, of the par value of $4,500, is held, the income to be applied to the expenses of the parish.

Endowment Fund, All Angels' Church, New York City. This fund is to accumulate until it amounts to $50,000. It amounts at this date to $23,675.14.

Land at Yonkers, New York, with Church Buildings and a Mission Chapel at Lincoln Park, leased to St. Andrew's Memorial Church, and also an Endowment Fund of $25,000, to be held as a memorial to William F. Cochran, the income to be paid to the corporation of St. Andrew's Memorial Church.

Loomis Memorial Chapel (known as the Church of St. Luke the Beloved Physician), to be held as a memorial to Dr. Alfred L. Loomis. The property is situated at Liberty, New York, at the Loomis Sanitarium, which agrees to maintain the property and provide necessary services. A legacy of $10,000 has been received from the Executors of Anne M. Loomis, to constitute an Endowment Fund for the church.

Property on the south side of East Eighty-eighth Street, east of Second Avenue, held by St. James' Church. This corporation holds a reversionary interest in this property in case the Church corporation should fail to comply with the terms of the deed of gift. Endowment Fund of $200,000, to be invested and the income paid over to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. James' Church, to be applied to the use, maintenance and support of said property in East Eighty-eighth Street.

In addition to this, an Endowment Fund of $89,086.64 has been received, to be held by this corporation, and the income paid to St. James' Church so long as it shall be entitled under the terms of the agreement to receive the same, and afterwards to Trinity Church Corporation of the City of New York.

Land at Harrison, Westchester County, New York, with Church Buildings thereon, known as All Saints' Church, leased to Rev. William W. Kirby, Frank German, James A. Burnham and William H. Beers, who agreed to maintain the property in repair and provide church services. Under the will of Angelina S. Macy, $10,000 has been received, to be held as part of the Endowment Fund of the Church. There has also been received from the Treasurer of the Church $3,000 American Telephone and Telegraph Company four per cent. collateral trust bonds, due 1929, a the sum of $1,364.08 in cash, to be held as part of the Endowment Fund

Church of the Holy Apostles' Endowment Fund. This fund was received in 1901, with instructions to hold the same until with the accumulations it amounted to $20,000, after which the income of the fund is to be paid to the Treasurer of the Church of the Holy Apostles, to be expended by him for the general running expenses of said church. This fund at the present time, with accumulations of interest, amounts to $20,000, and the income has been paid to the Treasurer of the church.

Also two bonds of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway for $1,000 each, bearing five per cent. interest, the income to be paid to the Rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles, to be used for the Fresh Air Work of the parish; and a $1,000 bond of the City of New York, the income to be applied for the benefit of the Sunday-school of the parish, the fund to be known as the "John P. Collard Fund."

Fund of $5,000, held under the will of Elizabeth D. Eaton, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be used to provide fitting and proper burial of the poor connected with that parish.

Fund of $10,000, received under the will of Mary Beach Tousey, the income to be paid to the Rector of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be expended in the employment of a competent and devout woman to care for the poor and sick in the neighborhood of said church.

Endowment Fund for the benefit of St. John's Church, Yonkers, invested in registered bond of the West Shore Railroad Company of the par value of $50,000, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. John's Church in the city of Yonkers.

St. Andrew's Church at Richmond, Staten Island. Received from Robert Fleming Crooks one three per cent. Northern Pacific general lien bond, due 2047, for $1,000, the income to be received and paid to the Rector or Treasurer of St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church at Richmond, Staten Island, to be by him expended for the special care of the burial plot belonging to Robert Fleming Crooks in the churchyard and for the benefit of the church, with the hope that the Cross, Memorial Window and Tablet will be cared for in years to come.

The term of office of two of the trustees, Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., and Rev. Cornelius B. Smith, D.D., will expire October 1, 1906, and two persons should be elected by the Convention for the term of four years to succeed them.

The Treasurer's Report, submitted herewith, shows in his charge securities and cash of the estimated value of $712,120.19.

Gross income collected, $28,911.48.

The Treasurer's accounts have been examined and found correct by the Executive Committee, consisting of J. Pierpont Morgan and John T. Atterbury.

Dated New York, September 24, 1906.

On motion, the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund were instructed to take the necessary steps to change the name of the Corporation so as to include the Fund for Widows and Orphans of Clergy within its corporate title.

The Rev. R. B. Kimber presented the Report of the City Mission Society.

THE SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY.

Seventy-five years ago, at an anniversary meeting of the missionary association of Christ Church in Anthony, now Worth Street, of which church the Rev. Dr. Thomas Lyell was rector, the first idea of a general city mission society was suggested. Public meetings were afterward held, the Bishop presiding, at which the subject was fully discussed and measures taken to perfect an organization.

On the 29th of the following September the Society was formally organized, its Constitution unanimously adopted, and its first Board of Managers chosen. Its Act of Incorporation states the purpose of the Society to be "to provide, by building, purchase, hiring, or otherwise, at different points in the city of New York, churches in which the seats shall be free, and mission houses for the poor and afflicted; and also to provide suitable clergymen and other persons to act as missionaries and assistants in and about said churches and mission houses." To this was added later the ministration to the inmates of the various public institutions of the city. The growth of the Society's work, though seriously hampered in its earlier years by financial difficulties and lack of hearty support, has gone steadily on, until to-day it stands before the Church as the greatest organization of its kind working under one head, for preaching the Gospel and ministering in every way to the afflicted, the needy, and the wanderers from the Church of Christ.

You will better appreciate the growth by the following comparison: At the end of the 30th year (the earliest report that I have at hand) there were two clergymen at work, 159 baptisms reported, and the receipts for the year were $1,416.50. The report for the 50th year shows that there were eight clergymen, 259 baptisms, 32,353 pastoral visits made, and the receipts were $23,309.59. Five years ago, at the close of the 70th year, the present Superintendent took charge. For that year the number of clergy was fourteen, there had been 296 baptisms, 106,416 pastoral visits, and the receipts were $50,638.75.

During the last Convention year, from May 1, 1905, to May 1, 1906:

Number of Places where Services were Held.....	36
Number of Services.....	4,129
• Celebrations of the Holy Communion (in public, 918; in private, 1,888).....	2,806

Communicants Registered	1,374
Baptisms: Infants, 502; Adults, 359.....	961

Burials	366
Sunday-school Teachers.....	72
“ Pupils.....	1,375
Industrial School Teachers.....	45
“ Pupils.....	588
Visits made by the Staff.....	212,935

from which you will see that in the last five years the number of has been increased by six, the number of baptisms by 665, and the ber of visits has been doubled.

It is difficult to show the extent of a work such as this by mere f alone. Perhaps the number of baptisms is as good an index as any to make a more concrete comparison on this basis, let me say the number baptized during the past year by the clergy of the Society only exceeded by nineteen of the ninety-one dioceses of the entire C which total is an increase of $17,300 over the amount reported five ago.

The Treasurer's books show the sources of the Society's income to been as follows, for the year ending October 16, 1906:

Income applicable to General Expenses.....	$55,849.64

The growth of the work among colored people, which was begun a and a half ago at the request of the Convention, has been phenon The problem has been to provide quarters of suitable size to accomm the congregation, until such time as the permanent buildings can be er We enlarged the temporary chapel last June, doubling its seating cap To-day it is more crowded than it was before. While there are churches ministering among twenty thousand negroes in the immu vicinity of St. Cyprian's Chapel, the need of the special work we are is shown by the fact that in the last twelve months more than a tho families have been added to the chapel roll, without in any way dr from those who were regularly attending elsewhere. The need of t is the money to erect even a part of the permanent buildings for the land has been secured and the plans drawn. We have demonst to you that this work has so far been a success, and we look to you have the means to do so, to see to it that it shall become a perm success, by providing us with a suitable place in which to do the wor

One of the least known islands of the chain that dot the East River from Fiftieth Street to the mouth of the Sound is Hart's Island, just within the city line, fifteen miles away, where to the present year we have done but little. Now we have a missionary who devotes his entire time to the men and boys imprisoned there. The men are vagrants of the lowest Workhouse type. They take an interest, however, in the services, and something can be done to help them. The boys are inmates of the reformatory that the city has just opened for misdemeanants between the ages of sixteen and thirty. With these a great deal can be done. They attend the Sunday service and Bible class, where they receive religious instruction. A system of parole has been very wisely adopted, by which they are able to gain their liberty after a period of three months, provided they have obtained a certain number of merits. Upon their discharge we are able to help them most, for by keeping in touch with them in their homes, by securing suitable employment for them, and by connecting them with boys' clubs or other parish work, we can do a great deal to mould their characters and make them useful citizens.

On Hart's Island is the Potter's Field. Every tenth person who dies in New York is buried there. Until we were able to have a missionary at this place, the bodies were laid in the pits—150 to each—without a prayer. Now no body is interred there that is not committed to the ground with the words of the Church's Burial Office. The city officials have expressed their great appreciation of this work, and have furthered our efforts in every way they could.

Some years ago, in the centre of Staten Island, a City Farm Colony was established. All those inmates of the Almshouses, men and women, who are more able-bodied than their fellows, are transferred there, and given homes in the various cottages. Recently we have been able to send a chaplain there, who holds a weekly service, and visits all the inmates.

The work among the children on Randall's Island has been greatly furthered by the provision of a suitable chapel building, which has been completely furnished by several devoted Churchwomen. This work, the ministering to children of feeble minds, is difficult enough at best, but with the present improved facilities we can gather the children on weekdays as well as Sundays for the religious instruction and training to which they readily respond.

Our Fresh Air Fund amounted this past year to more than $6,000, the largest in the history of the Society, and the Home at Milford, Connecticut, gave over eight thousand days' board to boys and girls who otherwise would have had to endure the heat and humidity of the tenement districts. It is our privilege to again acknowledge the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hull Browning, who have, for the thirteenth successive year, placed the Rethmore Home at Tenafly, New Jersey, at our disposal for the little children, and met the entire expense of its maintenance.

The Advent offering, just about to enter upon its third year, has made a place for itself in the scheme of the Sunday-school contributions of the city, and has registered each year more and more schools whose pupils are glad to make an offering on the Birthday of the Christ Child to further our work among those unfortunate children who have so little.

I would tell you, would you bear with me, of the homeless women and children for whom St. Barnabas' House has cared, of the many children of working mothers who have found loving and tender care during the day at God's Providence House, and of the countless number of sick and afflicted and crime-stained ones who have passed, in endless procession, through our hospitals, almshouses, and prisons. We have preached to them, we have fed them with the Bread of Life, we have endeavored to realize our responsibilities for them, and to lift them up to higher and better things.

Each man in his own place has done his day's work faithfully and well. We cannot show you the fruit of that labor, but it will be apparent to all when, standing before the Throne, we shall behold "that great multitude which no man can number." "These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT B. KIMBER,
Superintendent.

NEW YORK, November 14, 1906.

The Rt. Rev. F. Courtney, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention, in accepting the Annual Report of the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, which has just been presented, desires to express in this way its hearty appreciation of the good and valuable work that is being carried on by the Society's representatives, and cordially recommends to the clergy and laity of the city and diocese to give that work their unremitting and generous support, by making in each congregation in the city of New York, in accordance with the Canon, an annual contribution for this purpose; and be it further

Resolved, That this Convention expresses its hearty approval of the Advent offering for City Missions, inaugurated by the Convention of 1904, and urges every Sunday-school to take part in this movement.

Mr. William N. Wilmer resigned as a Trustee of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, and his resignation was accepted.

Mr. William N. Wilmer nominated Mr. Robert W. B. Elliott to fill the vacancy, and he was elected a Trustee of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund.

The Report of the Treasurer of the Convention and the Report of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund were presented by the Secretary.

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund call the attention of the Convention to the deficiency still existing in the Residence Fund, and earnestly recommend such action by the Convention as may be proper to remove this debt.

The receipts from investments during the year have been sufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary, but no addition having been made to the capital of the fund during the year, an assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of income for the year ending September, 1907. The Trustees, therefore, recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are hereby authorized to assess the parishes of the Diocese at the rate of three per cent. upon the salaries paid to the Clergy, for the purpose of raising moneys needed for the Episcopal Fund, in lieu of the collections provided for by canon.

GEORGE MACCULLOCH MILLER.

JNO. McL. NASH.

GEORGE S. BOWDOIN.

November 7, 1906.

On motion, the resolution appended to the report was adopted.

The Secretary presented and read the Report of the Parochial Fund.

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund respectfully report that three meetings of the Board have been held during the Conventional Year 1905-1906.

Appropriations have been made, as usual, from the income of the funds at the disposal of the Board to some of the most deserving, but least salaried, clergymen of the diocese. Indeed, without the assistance derived from the stipends paid from the income of this fund it would hardly be possible to provide clerical assistance for some of the more needy churches in the diocese. The Trustees, therefore, have much pleasure in placing on record the fact that every application for assistance from the Board during the past Conventional Year has been willingly granted. In addition to its usual appropriations, the Board has been able the past year to provide a much-needed vacation for a clergyman long connected with the diocese.

The Committee on Parsonage Aid has made possible much needed improvement upon a rectory at one of the mission stations.

The Annual Report of the Treasurer is hereunto annexed.

The terms of office of Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie and Mr. Wm. Pierson Hamilton expired on October 1, 1906. The Trustees suggest that the Secretary be instructed to cast a ballot for these gentlemen to succeed themselves.

The Trustees announce to the Convention the resignation of Dr. Stuyvesant Fish Morris. Dr. Morris has served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Parochial Fund for many years with great loyalty and faithfulness. He now asks to be relieved from further service, and the Board of Trustees, with sincere regret, asks the Convention to elect a Trustee to serve in Dr. Morris' place. Dr. Morris was elected to serve until October, 1907.

GEO. R. SCHIEFFELIN,

President.

WM. PIERSON HAMILTON, Treasurer.

NEW YORK, September 20, 1906.

(On motion, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Convention be authorized to cast the ballot of the Convention for Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie and Mr. William Pierson Hamilton as Trustees, to succeed themselves, and for Mr. William Jay as Trustee, in place of Dr. Stuyvesant Fish Morris (resigned).

The Secretary reported that he had cast the ballot as directed and the Chair declared Mr. A. C. Zabriskie and Mr. Wm. P. Hamilton Trustees, to succeed themselves, and Mr. William Jay to succeed Dr. Stuyvesant Fish Morris.

The Rev. A. R. Mansfield presented the Report of the Seamen's Society.

Report

OF THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE OF NEW YORK, NOVEMBER 1, 1905, TO NOVEMBER 1, 1906.

Our headquarters have been maintained in New York for 62 years, but our field has become world-wide; out of the 3,000,000 sailors toiling on the seven seas, at least 250,000 frequent this port every year.

In outgoing ships they visit every port and carry with them the good and evil influences they assimilate here.

If our mercantile marine is greatly developed, our Society, like our nation, will become a world power.

Our aim is to give religious privileges, rational entertainment, and an attractive environment to all seamen while on shore; police and social protection from the evils that beset them and punishment for those who abuse them. To accomplish these objects, it is necessary to preach plainly, personally and conversationally.

We furnish reading rooms with ample facilities for home correspondence and for transmission of earnings to dependent relatives; concerts and lectures adapted to the needs of a floating population temporarily on shore and cultivate personal and friendly relations with the thousands of men who make use of our building.

We realize that in the short average of a sailor's active life (said not to exceed 12 years), and in his short stay on shore, our officers and employees, in their ministrations, must be alert, sympathetic, and untiring and we are glad to report increasing usefulness at all the stations of the Society.

The Society now maintains, first, a large steam yacht, the "Sentinel," by means of which visits to ships at anchor in the bay are made and crews put aboard at any point in the harbor. Second. On the 1st of May of this year our property at No. 34 Pike Street was sold, and the depart ment of work in that building, which was known as the East River station, was consolidated with the work at the Battery station, where the Society has leased the building, No. 1 State Street, and a part of the building, No. 2 State Street. At this location is maintained a free shipping bureau, also separate reading and writing rooms for officers and men, a banking office for the receipt of seamen's wages, either for safekeeping or for forwarding to their families, a large baggage room, a Post-office department, lunch counter, and other institutional features. Third. A Sailor's Home for boarding seamen at No. 52 Market Street. Fourth. The Floating Church at the foot of Market Street. Fifth. A reading and entertainment room, and Church of the Holy Comforter at West and Houston Streets. Sixth. Reading and entertainment rooms at the Bush Docks, South Brooklyn.

The statistics for the year show how closely the Society is in touch with the seamen frequenting this port.

162,256 officers and men have visited the reading rooms and the shipping office.

$119,772.64 have been deposited in our banking department, and of this amount $61,045.98 have been transmitted to relatives and friends. Over 50 nationalities are represented by the depositors, and amounts have been transmitted to 33 different countries.

29,197 letters have been sent by and received for seamen through our Post-office department.

7,692 boxes, bags and chests have been checked and cared for in our baggage department.

Through our shipping department 2,469 men have been shipped and 1,678 have been provided with temporary employment on ships and along the shore.

121 ships have been entirely shipped by the Society, which means that whole or part crews have been furnished and the ships gotten off to sea by our shipping officials.

3,300 visits have been made to vessels, boarding-houses and hospitals.

18,227 persons have attended the Sunday and week-day services. Baptisms, 11. Confirmation, 1. Marriages, 11. Burials, 14. We find, from correspondence, that maintaining the home interests of men, and treating the home as the unit, is yearly productive of increasing good to men and to the families dependent upon them. The Institute boat "Sentinel" has added greatly to the efficiency of our mission and practical work in the churchless harbor, and has become indispensable in the recent enlargement of our scope.

The continued co-operation of the ladies who constitute the Seamen's Benefit Society in helping to keep this vessel in active work, is gratefully acknowledged. The increasing number of seamen shipped by us, without payment of illegal shipping fees and bonuses, furnishes cumulative proof to men and shipowners alike that their interests are greatly promoted by this Society. The protection extended has reduced to a minimum the evils of the crimps and criminal boarding-house keepers, many of whom have abandoned their vile traffic in human flesh and have gone into other business.

The opportunity to find men among the thousands who visit our shipping office is gladly availed of by a rapidly increasing number of captains seeking for crews.

Our work has the hearty approval of the United States Shipping Commissioner, the foreign Consuls, especially the British, and most of the leading shipping representatives. A Consul, writing to his government concerning the work of the Society, said, among other things, "The position of the Society is a powerful factor for improving the status of the seaman and saving him from extortion and robbery of crimps, criminal boarding-house masters and shipping masters. Much tact, common sense, and power of organization have been brought to bear on these intricate problems."

One of the most influential agents in this port, in a circular letter to British shipowners, said, "We should very much like to have all of our friends as subscribers to the work of the Seamen's Institute, and we can assure you that every one connected with this work here has its interests very much at heart. It is absolutely necessary that steamship owners should co-operate with this institution."

The methods of benefitting the sailor that passed muster half a century ago are obsolete now, and a new, up-to-date system is the one demanded for the seafarer, and it is earnestly expected that the good people of this port and of this Diocese are going to give it to him.

All having at heart the commercial interests of the city of New York, or the welfare of seamen who frequent her port, are asked to join in erecting a building where work for seamen can be carried on.

A plot of land about 90 feet square, suitable for a ten-story building, has been purchased at the upper corner of South Street and Coenties Slip, fronting on Jeannette Park. It is earnestly hoped that we shall be able to break ground about May 1.

The position selected for the proposed building is an ideal one. It is in the heart of "sailor town," by which is meant that it is in close proximity to the offices of the United States Shipping Commissioner, and those of the various consulates, at which all incoming vessels must pay off their crews and sign on men for outward voyages.

WHAT THE INSTITUTE WILL CONTAIN.

Bedrooms for 400 seamen, each man to be provided with a separate room, as in the Mills Hotels.

A club room and sleeping apartments for captains and officers.

A restaurant supplying single meals, or board by the day or week.

A free shipping bureau, where captains can meet men looking for work, and be provided with crews without being compelled to pay fees to shipping masters; and where seamen can obtain employment without assigning a large part of their prospective wages in the form of "blood money" to secure berths on outgoing ships.

As it is expected that all classes of seamen will use this building, yachtsmen will find it an excellent place to secure their crews.

A club room for seamen, with library, newspapers and publications, foreign and domestic, conveniences for writing and receiving letters, games, etc.

A banking department where wages can be deposited for safekeeping or for transmission to their families and friends.

A large assembly hall where lectures and other entertainments can be given, and where religious services can be held for seamen regardless of race or creed.

Rooms for classes for instruction in navigation, first aid to the injured, and other kindred topics, etc.; also a gymnasium and a library.

A supply store, with a full line of sailors' supplies at moderate cost.

A Post-office department.

A baggage room.

ADMINISTRATION.

The work in this building will be under the supervision of men thoroughly acquainted with the needs of sailors and with the needs of ship-owners.

The building will be owned and the work carried on by the "Seamen's Church Institute of New York," which adopted this name on April 5th of this year in lieu of its former cumbersome and inadequate title.

When the new institute is erected, all the work of the Society will be consolidated there except the work at West and Houston Streets and in South Brooklyn, with resultant economy in cost of administration.

The plot of land has cost $200,000. This sum, including a subscription of $50,000 from the Society, has already been subscribed.

We now look to the public-spirited men and women of New York to aid in raising the amount necessary to erect and equip the proposed building. This will require about $400,000. The work is in the hands of a building committee.

OTHER CITIES COMPARED.

London, Liverpool, Montreal, and all important British seaport towns have buildings where work similar to that above indicated is carried on. The conditions under which seamen in this port are shipped and discharged are different from those that prevail elsewhere, and it is essential above all things that sleeping accommodations for a large number of sailors should be provided, in order that there may be at this headquarters a constant supply of seamen who can be drawn on at short notice to supply the needs of outgoing vessels.

AN EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY

is here presented of founding and perpetuating an institution which will be of incalculable good, both to the seamen as men and to the commerce of New York, now and in the years to come. An example may thus be set which other seaport cities of this country will be certain to follow.

America's greatest city is her greatest port, and it is proper that New York should lead in this work. She may have the tallest buildings; probably has the greatest revenue; possibly has the wealthiest citizens; she assuredly and unqualifiedly is the most inhospitable of all cities to seamen who are obliged to sojourn within her limits.

Curtailement of effort in the face of the urgent demands of our increasing work seems inadvisable and impossible unless we shirk our great and growing opportunity for usefulness. We are still far behind other large cities in their care for seamen, and if we are not sustained we must place the responsibility upon the opulent, commercial, maritime and other interests of this magnificent port, which leads the world in its general and humane interest in men who labor and suffer on land. We cannot believe that they will knowingly continue to neglect those who toil : ultimately perish on the sea.

We have faith in our work and mean to pursue it with a will. We ask that you will be liberal of your efforts, your gifts and your prayers; we shall not then work in vain.

Rev. A. R. Mansfield moved the reference of the following resolution to the Committee on Canons:

Resolved, That Section 3 of Canon XVII. be altered, by substituting words, "Seamen's Church Institute of New York," for the words, "New York Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in City and Port of New York."

The Rev. Frank Heartfield moved the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention, in accepting the Annual Report of Board of Managers of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York, which has just been presented, desires to express its deep sense of the importance of the Society's work, and its cordial recommendation to clergy and laity of the city and Diocese to give to that work their remitting and generous support.

The Bishop Coadjutor presented and read his Annual Address (see Appendix A).

The Rev. Dr. Batten moved the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the portion of the address of the Bishop Coadjutor dealing with missionary work among the Jews be referred to a special committee, such committee to report at this Convention.

The Chair appointed as such Committee the Rev. Dr. Batten, the Rev. H. McC. Birckhead and Mr. R. Fulton Cutting.

The Rev. Dr. Tiffany, in behalf of the Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the resolution of the Rev. Henry Barker, with reference to changes in the Rules of Order, reported recommending the adoption of a new rule to be known as Rule XXVII, and gave notice that action on such recommendation would be called for at the session on the second day.

The Rev. Dr. Peters offered the following resolution:

Whereas, It is a matter of common notoriety, and is, in fact, admitted in the official report of the Committee of Investigation appointed by the Sovereign of the Congo Free State, that conditions of misrule and oppression prevail in said Free State, amounting to a state of slavery of the natives, enforced and supported by barbarous and cruel methods offensive to the consciences of humane and Christian men;

And Whereas, King Leopold has declared that he administers the Congo Free State individually and not as King of Belgium, and is, therefore, amenable to the oversight and correction of the Powers, who shared in the creation of his trust;

Resolved, That we, in this Convention assembled, do urge the government of the United States to take such action with the great Powers of Europe as shall put an end to these abuses and secure that just and philanthropic treatment of the native population which was guaranteed at the formation of the Congo Free State.

On motion of Rev. Dr. J. Lewis Parks the foregoing resolution was referred to a committee of three to report to Convention tomorrow.

The Chair appointed as such committee the Rev. J. Lewis Parks, D.D., the Rev. Dr. Peters, and Mr. Everett P. Wheeler.

The Rev. Dr. Peters presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention requests his Honor the Mayor of New York to cause immediate steps to be taken by the proper authorities for the suppression of such theatrical and other performances on Sunday as are in violation of the law, and trusts that the Actors' Church Alliance will continue its efforts in this direction, and hopes that the clerical members of this Convention, in concert with the Brooklyn Ministerial Association, will refer to the subject in their pulpits next Sunday.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the Report of the Sunday School Commission.

Report

OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMISSION.

No department of Church work has witnessed greater increase in interest and efficiency during the last few years than that of the Sunday School. And from no other point, perhaps, can this general advance be seen to better advantage than from our own Commission Office. Every month adds to the volume of inquiries and requests for information as to lessons, methods of work, improved appointment and equipment.

To enumerate this in detail is unnecessary. But when we remember that during the last three years the imprint of the series of Lesson Manuals put out by the Commission is nearly 400,000 (383,500) copies; that the new orders received this last year number 4,258; that the total mail received reached 9,101 pieces, and the outgoing mail 18,845 individual pieces, not counting over 6,000 Bulletins sent out; that the callers at the Exhibit reached 2,547; that the total sales of the Lesson Manuals in New York and Milwaukee amounted to $13,000 in twelve months—we shall understand that on this side alone of its work, the Commission has become an important factor in the Church at large, and has a relation to interests stretching far beyond our Diocesan borders.

It has been to our great advantage that the Bishop of the Diocese has so generously furnished us with office room in the See House. And yet so large has our Exhibit become, and so greatly have our visitors increased in numbers, that it has been found necessary to secure the use of the two large rooms in the rear, thus enabling us to make the Exhibit of far greater practical help and value.

For this increased space we are to pay $500 a year, but it will be money well spent in the interests of the Church and her workers.

I. Let us briefly report upon several features of our work.

1. Lesson Manuals.

This series of Source-Method Manuals covers a large number of courses. They furnish a means of securing a definite and progressive Curriculum. They are elastic in arrangement, adaptable to Schools requiring from 26-40 Lessons. They accommodate themselves admirably to Regular Sessions, with full schools and many teachers, and to separate Summer Sessions, with small schools and few teachers.

The Memoriter Work consists of Church Canticles, Hymns, Collects, Bible Passages, etc., and is not confined to Scripture Golden Texts. Pictures, Maps, Manual Work, Mounting Books, Written Work, etc., are arranged for throughout.

The Complementary Book to the Catechism Course, Junior: How to Use the Prayer Book, for children from 8-10, is now issued.

Next year we hope to issue a New Course on the Epistles for Bible Classes and Adults.

2. Conferences and Addresses.

These have exceeded in number those reported a year ago. Indeed, it has not been possible to meet the demand that has come to us from all quarters. The Chairman has given 30 addresses, the Secretary 04, and other members of the Commission, the Rev. F. F. German, the Rev. W. C. Hicks, Mr. H. H. Pike, and Dr. W. L. Hervey, have also spoken during the year. The list of places visited need not be detailed, but it would show how broad and far-reaching are the interests represented in our work. A total of 137 addresses were delivered in all, reaching Canada, New England, Washington, Virginia, Ohio, Michigan, and a dozen other States.

3. There are to-day 260 Teachers pursuing definite Training Courses. The Secretary now has classes in progress in Yonkers, Mamaroneck, and Rye, and a class is arranged for New Rochelle. Present indications show a growing interest in this direction. Of course much of this activity lies outside our own Diocese, but it is earnestly believed that the coming year will see a larger number among our Sunday School Teachers ready for such special work.

4. The Commission Bulletin, originally started as our own special organ, has lately been entered as second class matter by the Post Office Department, and there are now coöperating with us as editorial writers those representing the Sunday School interests throughout the entire Church, and more especially in connection with the Federation of S. S. Organizations, covering the Church at large.

The practical helpfulness of this Bulletin will be apparent to all. It is most suggestive and full of information, and has a subscription list already of over 1,700. At its low rate of 25 cents a year it ought to be in the hands of every Sunday School teacher.

II. The Outlook. Passing beyond our own Diocese, there are several things to be noted.

1. The Growth of Organization. Everywhere we see the conviction gaining ground that the Diocese must organize its Sunday School work. The same oversight and care which the Bishop and his clergy have exercised in other departments are now demanded in behalf of the work of religious instruction.

This calls for the Diocesan Commission, and this in turn calls for federation of all Commissions and Institutes, while at the head of all stands the Church with her Joint Commission. These things mark the spread of a new enthusiasm for religious instruction, a new appreciation of its dignity, and the authority of its demand.

2. Then there comes with this a closer affiliation with other Christian Communions, because we cannot be indifferent to the fact that Childhood and Youth know no lines of demarcation. The Church to which we belong must know what every other Church is doing if she would do her own work best.

This deeper community of interest between all Christian people in the question of proper religious instruction is one of the most hopeful features of our times. The one thing common to all Churches is the Child, and in a country such as ours, where the public school system is so apart from all responsibility for religious teaching, it becomes of the highest possible importance that those who stand for the religious instruction of the people shall follow those methods which are calculated to produce intelligent faith and worthy character.

3. A Growing Unity of View.

In the earlier days of the Commission movement there seemed likely to arise out of the new interest created an even greater confusion than had existed before. Commissions sprang up rapidly. Each seemed, for the time, called to put forward its own theories. Countless suggestions and experimental curricula followed. This was of course inevitable. But already there has come a reaction. Differing theories are being resolved into their general principles. And we shall see in the near future a far truer unity of view and method than ever before. This will not involve any hard and fast uniformity, but on the contrary it must result in a more comprehensive and truly educational instruction of our youth.

4. Again, this whole movement is putting emphasis on the Church idea rather than the individual or parochial. No parish Sunday School lives to itself. It is part of the Diocese. In some of our Dioceses this is being recognized so vigorously, that it is lifting the whole level of Sunday School work to a plane never before occupied among them.

New York Diocese should no longer hold back from the fullest possible recognition of this fact and what it implies.

No one in this Convention will, for instance, deny that the State Sunday School Associations, which have covered as with a network the schools of other Christian communions here and in other States, and have employed their travelling Secretaries and developed their Conferences and Institutes, no one will, I say, deny that these methods have been of the greatest benefit. They are directly conducive to the betterment of the work, the improvement of the Teacher, the strengthening of the individual Church, and, further, they emphasize that very conception of the Church as the Kingdom of God in the world which gives it dignity in the mind of the child, and impresses his imagination with the sense of larger things.

Twenty-five years ago this was not recognized as it is to-day. The sense of corporate life was weaker. The individual Rector stood alone. There was, comparatively speaking, no such well-established and coördinated body of facts and principles and methods as have now come to pass.

What does this then mean for us? It points directly to some further definite step by which we in this Diocese can avail ourselves of this same closer organization, and, if I may so express it, this fuller oversight of the work as a whole. Of the nature of such oversight I need not speak here. But I can conceive of no one thing that would throw into the work of this Diocese for its childhood and youth, a greater practical help for the increase of Christian knowledge and the creation of higher enthusiasm for Christ and His Church.

It is not competent to this Report to suggest in detail the steps necessary to the accomplishment of this further step.

We already have the most ample provision for it in the organization of the Diocese itself. Nothing need be created. It is simply a question of making effective in practice what we already have in theory.

IV. I may be allowed to refer briefly to the work of the Sunday School Association, through which, as an association representing the several Archdeaconries, we must look for help in realizing the more effective organization and oversight of the Sunday School interests of the Diocese, of which I have spoken.

Whatever be the method proposed for securing this, it must find in such an Association much of its support, and important coöperation in work. Meanwhile it is to be hoped that the appeal of the Association in behalf of Diocesan Missions will meet with the hearty response of the Sunday Schools of the four Archdeaconries of Westchester, Dutchess, Orange, and Richmond, during the approaching Advent Season.

The Rev. P. Harrower moved the adoption of the resolutions embodied in the Report, and they were adopted:

Whereas, It would seem that the proper religious instruction of the young cannot be undertaken by the Public School authorities, and is not, with few exceptions, adequately given by parents; and

Whereas, It must be apparent that no work under the priesthood of the Church is more important than that of the instruction and guidance of youth in religious matters, for which the time now given in Sunday-school sessions is insufficient; therefore be it

Resolved, That this Convention regards with favor the efforts which have already been made in certain churches of the city of New York to secure additional opportunity for such instruction by a second session of the school between Sundays, or by Sunday-school teachers meeting their classes separately upon a week day, or by particular study classes formed to supplement the work of the Sunday session, and urges upon the clergy of the Diocese the careful study of such methods as have already been used, with a view to more fully and satisfactorily meeting this great necessity of our time.

The Rev. Dr. Batten moved the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, First: That the Convention of the Diocese of New York respectfully petitions the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America to take such action as may be necessary in order to sanction the permissive use of the Revised Version of the Holy Scriptures in the reading of the Lessons at Morning and Evening Prayer.

Second: That the delegates from this diocese be instructed to present this petition at the next session of the General Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Stires presented the following report:

At the last Diocesan Convention the following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That so much of the report of the Church Missionary Society for Seamen as describes a Home for Seamen, such as exists in Liverpool, Montreal, and elsewhere, be referred to a committee of three persons to confer with other societies and citizens as to the erection of a similar House in New York City."

Under this resolution the Chair appointed the Rev. Dr. Stires, the Rev. Dr. Morgan, and Mr. J. Augustus Johnson.

The Committee beg to report that conference has been held with many individuals and representatives of other societies, resulting in a plan for a Home for Seamen in this port, and they are encouraged to hope that before the next Convention meets the money required may be in hand. The Building Committee, of which Mr. Edmund L. Baylies, Captain Mahan, Mr. Henry Lewis Morris, and others, are members, have already acquired by purchase a very desirable site on South Street, corner Coenties Slip, and contributions have been solicited with success. The undertaking will acquire additional force and support if approved and commended by the Convention.

Very respectfully submitted,

ERNEST M. STIRES,
D. PARKER MORGAN,
J. AUGUSTUS JOHNSON.

In connection with this report the Committee offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention congratulates the Seamen's Church Institute upon the admirable beginning which has been made in the plan to erect an adequate House for Seamen in the port of New York, and it warmly commends this undertaking to the generous consideration of Churchmen and other citizens of this city.

Resolved, That the Committee be continued and its membership increased to five.

The Chair appointed as such committee the following persons:

Rev. Ernest M. Stires, D.D.
Rev. D. Parker Morgan, D.D.	Mr. Henry Lewis Morris.
Mr. J. Augustus Johnson.	Mr. Elbridge F. Gerry.

Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the lists of those confirmed, which are required by Canon XV., Section II. [2] to be presented to the Bishop, shall not be required to be retained by the Ordinary for more than five years.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Baker the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That so much of the Address of the Bishop of New York as relates to the subject of down-town churches, and so much of the Address of the Bishop Coadjutor as relates to the subject of Church extension in the Diocese be referred to a committee of seven, of whom the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, and the Archdeacon of New York shall be members, to report to the next Convention.

The Rev. Mr. Taylor moved that the Bishop Coadjutor be given a seat and vote in this Convention, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks reported for the Committee on the Congo Free State, that it recommends the adoption of the resolution of the Rev. Dr. Peters, which was thereupon adopted by the Convention.

On motion, the Convention adjourned to Thursday at 10 o'clock.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, November 15, 1906.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Morning Prayer was said by the Rt. Rev. H. C. Potter, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Ernest Voorhis, Ph.D., and the Rev. R. E. Jones, D.D., Canons of the Cathedral.

The Bishop of the Diocese took the chair, and the minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

On motion, the calling of the roll of delegates was omitted, and the delegates present to-day but not present yesterday were requested to send their names to the Secretary.

The Secretary of the Convention presented the following nominations in accordance with the provisions of Canon IX.:

NOMINATIONS FOR STANDING COMMITTEE.

Rev. A. T. Ashton, D.D.	Mr. Geo. M. Miller.
Rev. G. M. Christian, D.D.	Mr. Herman C. Von Post.

Rev. H. P. Nichols, D.D.	Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie.
Rev. C. B. Smith, D.D.
Rev. F. B. Whitcome.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Batten, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That that portion of the Bishop's Address dealing with the situation of the Diocesan House be referred to a special committee of three, such committee to report at the next meeting of this Convention.

The Chair appointed as such committee:

REV. GEORGE A. STRONG, D.D.

MR. T. M. CHEESEMAN, M.D.

MR. D. MAITLAND ARMSTRONG.

Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson presented the following:

Report

OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON REPRESENTATION IN THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

The committee, consisting of the Deputies to the General Convention, members of this Convention, to which was referred the memorial of the Church Club asking this Convention to take action with reference to the question of the clerical and lay representation of the dioceses in the General Convention of the Church, respectfully reports that it has met and considered the memorial and the question, and has agreed upon the following resolution, which it recommends to this Convention for adoption:

W. R. HUNTINGTON, Chairman.

F. L. STETSON, Secretary.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Convention of the Diocese of New York (1) that the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention of the Church is inconveniently large and should be reduced to approximately three hundred members; (2) that the mode of representation of the several dioceses, irrespective of the number of clergy and communicants therein, has become inequitable in operation, and should be corrected; and (3) that the Deputies to the General Convention of 1907 be and hereby they are requested to move in that Convention for a correction of the present system of representation.

On motion, the resolution was adopted unanimously.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington presented the following:

Report

OF THE NEW YORK TRAINING SCHOOL FOR DEACONESSSES.

The New York Training School for Deaconesses opened this year with 23 students, representing the following fifteen Dioceses and Missionary jurisdictions: Albany, Central New York, Honolulu, Idaho, Iowa, Long Island, Massachusetts, Newark, New York, Southern Florida, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, Western New York and West Texas.

The Board of Trustees remains the same: to the Faculty as it stood last year have been added two Instructors—the Rev. Walter Russell Lord, for the department on the Life of Christ; and Miss Laura Grosvener Marsh for a new department in English.

Eleven students were graduated last spring, nine of whom were set apart to the Diaconate. These women are working in the following fields: Three in the Bronx, three in the mountains of Virginia, one in Charleston, S. C., one in Hankow, China, one in Honolulu, one in Indian Territory, and one as the Dean's Assistant in the Training School.

The school has now graduated eighty women, and given practical training to many others. In addition to the many who are in city work, nine of the number are in Asia, two in the Hawaiian Islands, one in Alaska, and several are scattered throughout the West and among the mountaineers of Virginia.

Calls for Deaconesses are constantly coming to the school, and the supply is still much too small for the demand. It is the earnest wish of the authorities of the school that the life of the Deaconess, both in the home and foreign field, should be more constantly presented to earnest young women who could serve the Church in no better way than by offering themselves for this training and the work for which the training renders them efficient.

For the Trustees,

W. R. HUNTINGTON,

The Rev. R. B. Kimber presented the following:

Report

OF WORK AMONG IMMIGRANTS.

We, the undersigned, appointed a committee at the last Diocesan Convention, under the resolution,

“That so much of the address of the Bishop Coadjutor as referred to the work of the Church among Immigrants be referred to a committee of five, to be appointed by the Chair, with a request to report to the next Convention,” do respectfully report as follows:

Several of your members have visited Ellis Island and made a close study of the conditions and the work that the Church is doing there. The Church is represented by two faithful workers, a priest and a woman visitor, supported by Trinity parish, which has for many years sustained this work alone and unaided.

We find that these missionaries must, under the present conditions, confine their work very largely to the English-speaking people arriving there, and of these principally to members of the Church of England.

During the past five years the total number of immigrants arriving in this country was 3,833,076. These may be divided into nationalities, as follows:

Austria-Hungary	944,239
England, Scotland and Wales.....	201,157
Ireland	184,096
German Empire.....	176,995
Kingdom of Italy.....	959,768
Russian Empire and Finland.....	658,735
Scandinavia (Sweden, Norway, Denmark).....	291,634

There are at the immigration station representatives of every communion, and every denomination, divided and subdivided in such a way as to confuse the foreigner arriving here, who in his former home knew but one national church. Our Church work among immigrants is deplorably weak, while the representatives of other bodies are strong. This is due principally to the fact that we have no home for those who are detained while waiting for situations, or for their friends from afar to come after them.

In the vicinity of the Barge Office we find that the following Christian bodies have such homes, and in them are able to do the most of their religious teaching:

Polish, German, and Irish Catholic.

Danish, Norwegian, and German Lutheran.

Swedish Baptist, Congregational, Methodist, and Lutheran.

Swedish Mission Friends.

The Hungarian Home.

The Methodist Home for English and Finnish Girls.

These Homes are almost all of them self-supporting. Many of them are conducted on a profitable basis. The immigrant is not necessarily a poor man. Last year those landing at New York brought with them, in cash, $25,157,012. This does not include what they had with them in securities, or had sent ahead by postal order or bank draft.

We find further, that, whatever may have been their church affiliations in the country from which they have come, at least two-thirds of them either do not continue these church affiliations, or form any other church connection whatever, on arriving in this country of their adoption.

The largest proportion of those arriving here are at Ellis Island but a few hours. They are landed, passed through the various examinations, conducted to the waiting rooms, and sent out on the barges to the railroad terminals as rapidly as the inspectors can handle them. These are, at present, entirely untouched by the Church.

While we recognize that this is not a work for the city or for the diocese alone, but one which concerns the Church throughout the whole country, we would recommend that the Convention request the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society to undertake this work, to carefully systematize and enlarge its scope by placing there a staff of clergymen and women able to speak the languages of those who come there; and that the vestry of Trinity Church be requested to continue its generous interest, by contributing to the Treasurer of the City Mission Society the funds they now appropriate for the support of the present work.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. F. NELSON.
LEIGHTON PARKS.
ROBERT B. KIMBER.
JAMES E. FREEMAN.
G. HAMMARSKOLD.

The Rev. Dr. Grosvenor offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention does hereby request the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society to undertake the work among immigrants at the Port of New York, and to enlarge its present scope by placing there a staff of clergymen and women able to speak the languages of the immigrants, and be it further

Resolved, That the vestry of Trinity Church be requested to continue its generous interest, by contributing to the Treasurer of the City Mission Society the funds they now appropriate for the support of this work.

The Convention, on motion of the Archdeacon of Orange, proceeded to sit as the Board of Missions.

The Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That in accordance with the recommendation of the Board of Managers of Diocesan Missions the sum of $15,400 be appropriated for Missionary work in the Diocese, and that said sum be apportioned as follows:

For Archdeaconry of Dutchess.....	$2,500
For Archdeaconry of Orange.....	3,200
For Archdeaconry of Westchester.....	3,000
For Archdeaconry of Richmond.....	1,700
For Archdeaconry of New York.....	5,000

The increase of $500 in appropriation for Richmond is on account of new work among Italians.

Resolved, That Mr. Richard M. Pott be elected Treasurer of the Missionary Committee on Diocesan Board of Missions.

Mr. R. M. Pott was elected Treasurer of the Board.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Ashton, the ballot was dispensed with, and the following persons were elected as members of the Board of Missions:

The Rev. Robert F. Crary, D.D.	Mr. Irving Grinnell.
The Rev. W. H. Vibbert, D. D.	Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie.
The Rev. Henry M. Barbour.	Mr. Oliver G. Barton.
The Rev. J. L. Parks, D.D.	Mr. Albert C. Rust.
The Rev. John Huske.	Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The reports of the Archdeacons were presented and read.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF ORANGE.

In behalf of the Archdeaconry of Orange, the Archdeacon, at its request, reports as follows:

There have been some changes in the personnel of the missionary staff: the Rev. Thomas G. Losee has succeeded the Rev. Dr. J. G. Lewis at Walden and Montgomery.

The Rev. Harold Morse has resigned his charge of Marlborough and Milton, and his place has not yet been filled. His resignation made a vacancy in the office of Treasurer of the Archdeaconry, to which position the Rev. O. Applegate, Jr., of St. John's Church, Kingston, was unanimously elected.

The Rev. Augustus W. Merrick, of Ellenville, has accepted a mission in the Diocese of Long Island, and as his successor the Rev. Hugh P. Hobson has entered upon the charge of this important and promising field. The Archdeacon was present at the installation of a vested choir of forty persons, and their rendering of the chants and hymns showed careful training and good performance; and, as may be readily seen, the enlistment of so large a body of young people has widened the interest of the congregation, and is altogether a hopeful undertaking. Two new furnaces have been bought and placed in position, and it is confidently expected that this enlarged heating plant will be equal to making comfortable throughout the very cold winters the large church, so that it may be used continuously and the transfer to the chapel be rendered unnecessary. A new electric light system, replacing gas and kerosene, has also been installed, and these improvements have been entirely paid for.

The resignation of the Rev. Stephen Van Rensselaer, rector and missionary of St. John's Church, Monticello, and St. Mary's, Thompsonville, was followed by the election and appointment of the Rev. Walter Irving Stecher, of the Diocese of Long Island, to fill the vacancy. The visit of the Archdeacon to this parish and mission on the twenty-fourth of October encouraged him greatly. The work is prospering and the people have a "mind to work." A most satisfactory hot-water heating boiler has been introduced in the rectory, and a cold winter house has been changed into one of genial warmth. Such an improvement is mentioned because the expenditure of four or five hundred dollars means a great deal to a congregation of moderate means; and because it shows coöperation with their rector, and a desire to make him and his family comfortable in this elevated region of a thousand feet altitude, when the winters are often very severe.

The destruction by fire of the buildings of the State Normal School at New Paltz, Ulster County, has made necessary the taking over for recitation rooms all public halls that could be obtained. Our mission services were held in a rented public hall. This the State was obliged to take. No other was procurable; and, as a consequence, our mission services will not be regularly held during the coming winter.

The summer work in the mountains, at Pine Hill, Mead's Mount and Big Indian, has been maintained, and a good attendance at all the services is reported.

At Greenwood Lake the work has developed unusual interest, as, for example, an attendance of 85 at Sunday morning prayer, and of 50 at evening prayer. Sunday-school was held each Lord's Day. Arrangements have been successfully completed to continue the work during the winter by a lay reader in residence, under the immediate direction of the Archdeacon; and a new departure, which promises excellent results, is the establishment of a Sunday evening service in a hall in the village. The Archdeacon made a visit to the Lake in October, baptized an adult, preached and celebrated the Holy Communion, and saw that everything was well arranged for the winter's work.

At High Falls, under the Rev. W. J. C. Agnew, additional land for necessary church purposes has been acquired; and the services are well maintained both here and at the old church at Stone Ridge, both being under the charge of the same missionary.

The Archdeacon's visit to Callicoon, Sullivan County, showed a most excellent and brave spirit prevailing, though the congregation has only monthly, or, at times, semi-monthly ministrations of the Rev. Uriah Symonds, missionary at Port Jervis. The Archdeacon held evening service and preached, and was welcomed by a large congregation and an excellent choir. Here, also, he presided at a meeting of the trustees of the church, of which body he is a member, and found everything well maintained and in good condition—the church adequately insured, and repairs looked after. Meantime the rectory fund is increasing, and has passed the thousand-dollar mark. The Sunday-school is regularly held, and the woman's guild works well and faithfully.

At our last Archdeaconal meeting, called the Annual Meeting, in the month of September, held at Chester, Orange County, there was not only a good attendance, but also an earnest missionary spirit was evident. There had been a troublesome debt of some three hundred dollars incurred in order to meet promptly the stipends pledged to missionaries. It was resolved to take some action to wipe this out, and the result was a subscription, on the spot, from parishes and missions (headed by the Bishop Coadjutor, who presided), of a sufficient sum to cancel the whole indebtedness—a most encouraging occurrence this, and one which demonstrates the earnest spirit of our men.

Through the careful working of the apportionment system we hope to meet our proportionate pledges promptly in the future. We acknowledge most thankfully the aid received from the Diocese at large. We ask its continuance, and in asking the same appropriation as last year, wish to assure the members of this Convention, assembled as the Board of Missions of the Diocese, that all moneys entrusted to our care have been and shall be most carefully expended; and that no field, either in Domestic or Diocesan Missions, can offer better warrant of faithful and productive work for the cause of our Lord and Master than that of the Archdeaconry of Orange. Help us, dear brethren, all, to do that work, which is yours as well as ours—it is all within the limits of our Diocese of New York. To the building up of Christ's Kingdom, and for the Glory of God, let us press forward!

Respectfully submitted,

W. R. THOMAS,

Archdeacon of Orange.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF WESTCHESTER.

The Archdeaconry of Westchester must record the death of its oldest and very faithful missionary. The name of Bolton has been associated with educational and missionary enterprise for many years in Westchester County. The Bolton Priory of years ago, a church school of national reputation; the Rev. Robert Bolton, the able historian of our county; and the Rev. Cornelius Winter Bolton, for more than fifty years a consecrated worker in parishes and missions in the Diocese, have made the name, and those who bore it, familiar and honored. At a ripe age, and with labors abundant, continued until bodily infirmity compelled him to rest, Rev. Cornelius Winter Bolton died early in September. When far past seventy he had the courage to build a stone church at Pelham, which he freed from debt, and leaves, as a fitting monument of his life and ministry. During the year the Archdeaconry and Diocese also met with a great loss in the passing away of Rev. George Wilson Ferguson, M.A., for thirty-four years Rector of Trinity Church, Ossining. He was fully identified with the life of the whole village, and was most faithful and successful in his long and devoted ministry to his people.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

The parish of St. Mark's, Mt. Kisco, a mission but a few years ago, has had a large increase of church families of late. The vestry has bought a new site more central than the old God's acre, and will at once build a new church. The Memorial Church of St. Mary at Chappaqua has been built and consecrated. It is a loving memorial of a child of the Rev. Doctor and Mrs. Clendenin of Westchester.

St. John's Church, Pleasantville, through its rector, Rev. S. F. Holmes, reports that the year has been prosperous, and many improvements have been made on the parish property.

At Lewisborough Rev. C. M. Selleck, who serves our missions, reports, "That while the native population is not large, much acreage in the neighborhood is being acquired, and strangers of culture, character and competency are coming to our primitive midst." We are quite confident that ere long this part of our work will be self-supporting.

At Nepera Park, Rev. J. O. Davis, Priest in charge, the services and Sunday-school are maintained, with some accessions to the mission. It is hoped in a short time this hamlet will feel the impulse of growth so marked all about it.

PUTNAM COUNTY.

At Lake Mahopac and West Somers the work is enlarging and prospering. The missionary reports a stir in real estate properties, and increasing growth at the Lake. And this will mean, should the newcomers be favorable to the Church, a brighter future for the mission.

At Patterson, Rev. William H. Meldrum, rector, the distance from the city forbids much growth or marked change in the village. The faithful, however, of the parish, are loyal and zealous, full of missionary zeal; and all that can be done is well done by the missionary in charge.

ROCKLAND COUNTY.

We regret to state that our veteran missionary, Rev. Thomas Stephens, has been laid aside for some months with severe illness. He has been given a leave of absence, and his work is cared for by a locum tenens.

The missions at Spring Valley, New City, Pearl River, and the County Alms House were vigorously administered, until in the late spring, when Mr. Stephens was stricken. We are hoping for his restoration, for his withdrawal would be a sad blow to the work. The mission of Rev. William A. Masker at Haverstraw, Tompkins Cove, and Jones Point, while it represents few and far scattered souls, is devotedly done. It is keeping up the testimony of the Church's life and strengthening the things which remain, with little hope of larger numbers for the present.

Trinity Church, Garnerville, Rev. Charles C. Proffitt, rector, has suffered somewhat this year by the shutting down of the print works for a time. Many in the parish depend for their living on this industry. Still the Church has held its own; the Woman's Guild and Altar Society have been most active, and the spiritual condition is hopeful. The other churches and missions, aided by the Archdeaconry, are doing their work with wonted fidelity, and warrant our interest and continued help.

Allow us, in closing, to refer to a most interesting but serious condition about to face us in Westchester County. The electric equipment at the Grand Central Station, very soon to dispatch trains on our railway lines, is sure to make a phenomenal increase in our population. Already, by anticipation, our cities and villages are feeling the influence of the change. We are now not able to meet the demands for new missions, and within two years greater, more urgent opportunities will offer. The Church's children have a right to demand the Church's care. Some of us may hope that the Greater New York may become even greater, and annex the whole county of Westchester. Then we would come under the resourceful fostering care of the Archdeaconry of New York, which would no doubt repeat its recent and present history in the Bronx. Yet if this may not occur, we shall go on with good courage and an ever present hope that the New York churches, and our own, will realize our great and increasing work, and continue to help us do it. For with the glorious vision, large and wide, we are bound to have; and the world's needs we rightly feel, we must not forget that our first duty, taught of Christ, and recognized by the Church in her first days, is to go "into the next towns"; meet Diocesan needs; and thus care for the souls and lives that hunger for the Church's food, and beg for the shelter of the Church's life at our very doors.

All of which we would respectfully submit,

FREDERICK B. VAN KLEECK,
Archdeacon of Westchester.

We append, as required by the Canon, the

Report

OF THE TREASURER OF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF WESTCHESTER.

At the annual meeting of the Westchester Archdeaconry, held in Trinity Church, Mount Vernon, on September 20, 1906, the Treasurer reported the receipts and expenditures for the year just completed as follows:

Receipts.

Balance from the last year's account to credit of General Account.	$77.72
From Southern Missionary Convocation.....	461.25
From Collections and Donations (as itemized).....	195.54
From Treasurer of Diocesan Missions.....	2,400.00
From Parishes of the Archdeaconry on account of Apportionment lists of 1905 and 1906 (as itemized).....	1,500.15
From Interest Account.....	4.59
Total	$4,639.25

Expenditures.

Charged against General Account, Salaries and Stipends paid Missionaries, Assistants and Lay Readers (as itemized).....	$5,421.5
Stationery and Printing.....	30.6
Taxes on Montrose Glebe Lands.....	26.6
Total	$5,478.7

The deficit of $839.52 being temporarily provided for by a cash loan of $500 and a draft from the Reserve Fund of $339.52.

Receipts.

Balance from the last year's account to credit of the Worthington Fund	$307.4
Receipts from Trustees.....	220.6
Total	$528.0

Expenditures.

Charged against the Account: Fire Insurance Premiums.....	$150.0
Repairs on Church Property.....	23.6
Sexton's Services	107.6
	$280.6
Leaving a balance to credit of the account of.....	247.4
Total	$528.0

Receipts to credit of the Reserve Fund (as itemized).....	$570.0
Loan to account of General Account.....	339.0
Leaving balance to credit of this account of.....	$230.-

Measures were taken at the January meeting of the Archdeaconry for the establishment of a Reserve Fund of $1,000, from which could be borrowed by the Treasurer, as necessity might occur, such sums as would enable him, in case of delay in the receipt of regular income, to promptly meet all obligations to the missionaries as they fall due, such loans to be returned to the Fund from the first moneys afterward received. The sum of $570 was promptly contributed by individuals and a few of the parish of the Archdeaconry. Since then the Fund has been increased to $670 and it is hoped that the entire amount desired may be collected in the near future. The usefulness of this Fund has been already and amply demonstrated. It has enabled the Treasurer, since its establishment, to meet all claims with a reasonable degree of promptness. It is not to be encroached upon or impaired other than for the purpose designated, and its maintenance should be a special care of the Archdeaconry in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD D. HARRIS,

Treasurer.

November 14, 1906.

The Chair introduced to the Convention the Rt. Rev. Dr. Osborne, the Bishop Coadjutor of Springfield.

The Report of the Archdeacon of New York.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF NEW YORK.

The past year has been one of more than ordinary encouragement. Two more of our Bronx Missions have been added to the number of Parishes which have furnished, in recent years, good object-lessons of the value of helping people up there to help themselves. Following the examples of St. Margaret's and the Church of the Advocate in steady growth from small beginnings, St. Simeon's Church, Melrose, and St. Alban's, Highbridge, have, since our last report, so lengthened their cords and strengthened their stakes, that they have ceased to be Missions and fallen into line with other incorporated Parishes of the City, whose opportunities are full of promise of further development and increased usefulness. Their progress has been due in no small degree to the timely help which they have received in their infancy from sources outside of their own boundaries, but it has been chiefly due to the spirit with which they have illustrated the Apostle's words: "Seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the Church."

At the time of St. Simeon's erection into a Parish last spring it had a building fund of about $10,000, and real estate valued at $14,000, which it was purposed to sell in order that the proceeds might be added to the building fund; it had also a choice building site on which the corner-stone of the new Church is soon to be laid.

St. Alban's also began its parochial existence last spring. At that time its Church property was valued at $12,000.

Another Mission which seems to be growing in similar vigor is that of the Holy Nativity, Bedford Park. The congregation, after worshipping for a few years in a carriage house, moved to the Casino building, where better accommodations were offered; and during the past year, under the earnest ministry of the Rev. Herbert Miller Hopkins, Ph.D., aided by the Bishop-Coadjutor, the Rector of Grace Church and others, a new impulse has been given to the life of the Mission, and its outlook is now more than ever promising. An admirable site was purchased some months ago at a cost of $10,000, and since then a building fund has been started with such success that the work of building a substantial Parish House is already well advanced, the corner-stone having been laid on the 18th of last October. This house, when completed, will be used temporarily for Church services as well as for other purposes. We trust that further help will be forthcoming in order that the congregation may soon have a suitable spiritual home in which to worship. The Mission already has 105 communicants, and near the new site, which is just north of the Mosholu Parkway, is a neighborhood fast filling up with new homes.

St. Stephen's Church, Woodlawn, still carries a mortgage of $4,000, incurred at the time of the construction of the Church edifice, but the interest and all other expenses, except the Missionary's salary, are paid by the congregation. We join with the Rev. Percival McIntire in the hope that the fund, already started, for the building of a small rectory on the grounds adjoining the Church, may soon be large enough for this much-needed addition.

St. George's Church, Williamsbridge, has also paid all its expenses except the salary of the clergyman. The building improvements, including the rectory, mentioned in our last report, were completed early last winter, and since then the Mission has prospered more than ever before. This attractive and spacious Church was consecrated on December 10th of last year, on which occasion the Rev. Franklin N. Strader presented 17 candidates for confirmation.

The Mission of the Holy Spirit still occupies a rented hall. The Rev. R. H. Wevill, Deacon, has been in charge of the Mission during the past nine months, and has made it practically self-supporting. But we ought to add that this financial independence is partly owing to the fact that his own large share in the work is a free-will offering without salary.

The Rev. Rufus W. Frost, Deacon, now Assistant Minister of Grace Church, was formerly one of our Lay Readers. To his constant and loving endeavors Emmanuel Mission is largely indebted for its progress. He continues the work which he began in organizing the Mission, and it continues to be self-supporting; but it greatly needs a new Chapel, the present rented hall being inadequate for the growing congregation and Sunday School.

Mr. J. H. Falconer, Lay Reader, under whose immediate oversight the Chapel of the Atonement was built, has remained there on duty during the past year, and has been fortunate in having the help of Deaconess de Leon. The expenses of maintaining the services have all been paid by the congregation.

At St. Martha's self-supporting Mission, Mr. Wallace W. Thom, Lay Reader, has shown a spirit of unwearied faithfulness which is bearing good fruit. The new Chapel on Louise Street, at a more eligible site than the present rented room, is in process of construction, and is soon to be consecrated.

At this Mission and others in charge of Deacons or Lay Readers, the Rev. James A. Skinner has celebrated the Holy Communion, from month to month, and taken other duties as a General Missionary.

leave to express our thanks to the Rector and Vestry of urch for Church furnishings, including an altar with a reredos, a font, a lectern and a pulpit; to the Needle Work Guild of the same parish, to the City Committee of Grace Church, to St. Bartholomew's Benevolent Society and others, for clothing supplies of various kinds; to St. Andrew's Church, Yonkers, for Chapel benches; to the Chapel of the Holy Comforter, of Ascension Parish, and to the Altar Guild of St. Stephen's Church, Woodlawn, for patens and chalices; and to the Church of the Incarnation for a large Bible.

We are grateful also to parishes which have favored us with offerings and to contributors who have responded to our appeals. But we regret to say that the Archdeaconry of New York has not received any part of the sum of $5,000 appropriated for its use by the last Convention out of the fund for Diocesan Missions. That fund fell short of the amount required for Mission work in the Diocese chargeable to it, and, after paying stipends and other Missionary expenses outside of the city, had nothing left for the Archdeaconry of New York. We earnestly hope, therefore, that offerings in city Parishes will much enlarge the fund for Diocesan Missions for the current year, and that our city Rectors will give their congregations an opportunity to make special offerings in aid of Church extension in the Bronx.

We cannot close this report without mentioning a most valuable auxiliary to the Church's forward movement north of the Harlem River. The 9th of last June was a memorable one in the history of that movement, for on that day, at the southwest corner of Crotona Park, the corner-stone of the Church House, that is now rising there upon broad foundations, was laid with impressive ceremonies, in the presence of a numerous representation from the city clergy and from the choirs and congregations of neighboring Churches and Chapels. In originating and fulfilling a plan of such magnitude, which involves the raising of a large fund for the construction of the building and, most of all, for the future maintenance of a staff of clergy and lay workers, for manifold philanthropies, and also for the support of the adjoining Deaconess House, already purchased and now occupied by five Deaconesses engaged in helping on the work of neighboring Parishes and Missions, the Bishop-Coadjutor is rendering to the neighborhood, and indeed to the whole community, a service of conspicuous and far-reaching value. In putting his Church House in the heart of the Bronx, he is setting forces at work in that rapidly growing Borough which will refresh the hearts of multitudes of its men and women and children of to-day and of years to come. And surely our city clergy and laity cannot look on and see his shoulder at the wheel of the Church's Missionary progress, in a field so inviting, without giving some heed to the call that comes to wake in them the same kind of active personal interest in the same great opportunities of doing good to their fellow men.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. NELSON,

Archdeacon of New York.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF DUTCHESS.

During the past year the Archdeacon of Dutchess has visited the mission stations in the county, and found abundant evidence of faithful work. It is with much regret that we are obliged to report the resignation of the Rev. Wm. C. Rodgers, missionary at Lithgow, and for the past five years rector of Grace Church, Millbrook. During his residence in Dutchess the Rev. Mr. Rodgers has been able to bring about the erection of a beautiful church and rectory at Millbrook. He has ministered every Sunday to the congregation at Lithgow, one of the oldest parishes in the Archdeaconry, incorporated in 1803 by Bishop Philander Chase, then rector of Christ Church, Poughkeepsie.

At St. Peter's, Lithgow, although far removed from any railroad, and notwithstanding the heavy loss the church has sustained in this farming community by deaths and removals, there are now 30 communicants and 25 baptized children in the Sunday-school. Provisional arrangement has been made for the service here by the appointment of the Rev. Alexander Hamilton, until Grace Church, Millbrook, secures a rector.

At St. Thomas' Church, Amenia Union, an agreement was entered into by which the Rev. S. De Lancy Townsend, D.D., of New York City, became responsible for the services in that place, either personally or by deputy, from April 1 to November 1, the income of the endowment fund, now in the control of the trustees of the Parochial Fund of the diocese, to be used for such services. There have been 8 baptisms.

During the winter months the Rev. Mr. Hamilton gives occasional services to Amenia Union.

At Dover Plains Mr. Hamilton still carries on his work of spiritual uplifting and material building. A small debt (some $400) still remains on the church itself. The missionary is maturing plans for the purchase of a house for his own residence and for the needs of the guilds and societies of the mission.

At Hopewell Junction we are fortunate in securing as our missionary the Rev. R. E. Grueber as successor to the Rev. D. B. Ray. He has made a visitation of the whole adjacent region, and is receiving the regards of the whole community. This faithful man receives a stipend of but $600 per year. There is no rectory. It is necessary for the more effective discharge of his work that a house be built on the church lot, providing rooms for the missionary and for recreation and social entertainment of the many railroad men who live in this village. There is no place except a saloon where men may congregate for social intercourse. The missionary believes that a building, such as he has suggested to the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry, could be erected for $1,000. This is a railroad centre. A few dollars judiciously expended now will yield a great increase in the future for the spiritual uplifting of the people. Hopewell Junction has a future, and it is hoped that funds will be forthcoming for the more aggressive work in this section. Mr. Grueber reports a visitation by Bishop Worthington on St. Simon and St. Jude's Day, when a class of six was confirmed.

The church at Pine Plains was seriously injured by fire just before Christmas Day of 1905. The missionary, the Rev. Thomas Burrows, reports the complete renovation and beautifying of the church, the necessary funds being raised by the parishioners.

Here, as at Glenham and Pleasant Valley, a quiet but excellent work for Christ and His Church is being carried on by the respective missionaries.

It has been decided to continue our aid to Mr. A. C. Burdick, a Lay Reader at Stone House, West Pawling, for another year. The Neighborhood House is already in use, although not yet furnished. The school is a most interesting feature of the work here, and, as the record of attendance shows, is appreciated by the people of the place.

At Manchester Bridge—five miles east of Poughkeepsie—a mission has been maintained for several years by the zealous church people of the neighborhood, Mr. W. H. Hart and his family being among the most earnest supporters. A union chapel, which formerly stood at Titusville, has been removed to Manchester, and is now a very attractive church, its seating capacity being about 100. A Sunday-school and evening service are held here every Sunday. At the Archdeacon's visit in August there were 24 communicants at the morning service, and the church was filled in the evening. The services here are maintained at no pecuniary cost to the Archdeaconry.

The Apportionment plan, which has resulted in largely increased interest and offerings for the general missionary work of the Church in this country, has been in use in the Archdeaconry of Dutchess since its organization under the canon of the diocese—the first Archdeaconry, by the way, to organize under Canon 18, of the Diocesan Missionary Society. The self-supporting parishes and missionary stations have responded promptly and cheerfully in meeting their quota, and at this writing Amenia Union is the only delinquent mission.

Hearty congratulations were extended, at the annual meeting of the Archdeaconry, to the Rev. Dr. R. F. Crary, Rector of the Church of the Holy Comforter of Poughkeepsie, upon his completion of 39 years of faithful service as rector of that parish; and also to the rector and parishioners of Trinity Church, Fishkill, upon the 150th anniversary of the first service held in Fishkill by the Rev. Samuel Seabury, father of the first Bishop of the American Church. May abundant blessings be poured upon them, as upon all the priests and people of the Archdeaconry.

The Archdeaconry of Dutchess, in common with the whole diocese, laments the death of that earnest preacher, diligent pastor and ripe scholar, the Venerable George Dowdell Johnson, D.D., Archdeacon of Richmond, and Rector Emeritus of Christ Church, New Brighton, Staten Island, who, after a ministry of nearly 50 years, died on the morning of August 28, 1906, at his home in New Brighton. His life was beautiful and unselfish.

The names of the missionaries and of the stations in the Archdeaconry of Dutchess have been handed to the Secretary of the Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

A. T. ASHTON,
Archdeacon.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the Report of the Archdeaconry of Richmond.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF RICHMOND.

It is with feelings of profound and tender regret that this report of the Archdeaconry of Richmond must first record its own great loss in the death of the late Archdeacon, the Rev. Dr. George D. Johnson, who from its organization had presided over its work with such wisdom and gentleness as so greatly endeared him to its clergy and laity. Through many years he had watched its interests with utmost faithfulness, and it was his happy privilege to pass away from us in the fulness of his own devotion and the loving devotion of his people to himself.

The last report made by him at the meeting of the Archdeaconry in June may well form the basis of this present report, and I shall therefore add to this only such matters as have since come to pass.

The work at St. Stephen's, Tottenville, has been for the last eight years under charge of the Rev. John C. Fair. In spite of many discouraging conditions, the parish grew, and the rectorship of Mr. Fair was one of pains taking fidelity and unusually successful. Mr. Fair resigned his work there last July, and removed to the Diocese of Newark. The Parish extended a call to the Rev. Guy A. Jamieson, of Maryland, who assumed duty at St. Stephen's in October, and there is every reason to believe that the work in Tottenville will continue to prosper as in the past.

At New Dorp the last year has seen a remarkable development. A parish house, costing in all $12,000, has been built, and though there rests upon it a debt of some $4,500, still there is ample financial backing behind the enterprise, and it furnishes an opportunity for careful and aggressive service to the community which cannot be too highly estimated. The Rev. Charles K. Gilbert, under whom this has been accomplished, has felt obliged to resign the charge of Trinity Church, but he leaves the work thoroughly systematized, and there should be no difficulty in placing there a man fully qualified to carry the work to the fullest completion. The loss of Mr. Gilbert is much to be regretted in every way, but he leaves Trinity Church firmly equipped for work in that growing section of the Island. It is inevitable that sooner or later that community will be filled with a very substantial class of people, and the extended church "plant" will invite and obtain their support. This growth is already very evident, and Trinity Church should, within a very few years, become a strong factor in that section of the Borough. To-day the parish is fully organized, and has been admitted to union with the Convention at this present session.

All Saints', Mariner's Harbor, and the Church of the Holy Comforter, Eltingville, are under the care of the Rev. Dr. J. B. Blanchet. The work at Mariner's Harbor, formerly known as the Chapel of Our Father, was started over 15 years ago, under the special charge of the Rev. Edward Bell, a man of singular loveliness of character and holy life. Under the new name of All Saints' Church, it has become incorporated, and has at this present session been admitted into union with the Convention.

The industrial growth of the northwestern section of Richmond Borough is going on rapidly, and it is believed that All Saints' Church will meet this growth and develop into a strong and useful parish.

Eltingville, on the south shore, is in process of change, though less marked and of a different character. The church plant there is well placed for future growth, however, with a comfortable rectory, a small parish house, and a very attractive church.

The Rev. Wm. G. Thompson, at St. Simon's, Concord, has one of the most interesting locations on the Island. Recent real estate ventures indicate a change in his locality of the most important and far-reaching character, and St. Simon's, which for years has made a brave and persistent struggle, seems about to come into its own. The church is in a healthy and hopeful condition, and its interests are being cared for with wise and patient fidelity.

The outlook, as a whole, is brighter than in many years. It would seem that some effort should be made as soon as possible to locate points for future development. For there is every reason for believing that the coming ten years are to witness a large growth of population.

This report would be incomplete were not mention made of those gentlemen who have so faithfully assisted. Mr. Arthur A. Michell and Mr. Bert Lienhardt, as lay readers, have been invaluable to the work at Mariner's Harbor and Eltingville. The record of the year is one of marked growth, and gives promise of still larger and stronger advance.

On motion, the Board of Missions rose and the Convention resumed its session.

The Rev. Dr. Batten reported as follows:

The Committee to which that part of the address of the Bishop Coadjutor dealing with missionary work among the Jews was referred, submits its report as follows:

The Committee has given the matter such consideration as the time at its disposal permitted, but as the problem presented was already familiar to the members of the Committee, the shortness of the time was not so serious a difficulty.

The Committee is of the opinion that our Church should undertake some intelligently directed and vigorous missionary work among the Jews in this diocese. It is also of the opinion that the work should not be delayed a day longer than is necessary. To embody its ideas and put the matter into form, making possible the action of this Convention, the Committee offers the following resolutions:

First—That a committee of seven be appointed, of whom the Bishop Coadjutor shall be chairman, authorized to engage in specific missionary work among the people of foreign races in this diocese.

Second—That the plan for such missionary work shall have the approval of the Bishop Coadjutor.

Third—That the committee shall incur no expense except what it provides funds to meet.

L. W. BATTEN,
HUGH BIRCKHEAD,
Committee.

The resolutions were adopted and the Chair appointed as such Committee

THE BISHOP COADJUTOR.

The REV. L. W. BATTEN, D.D.

MR. R. FULTON CUTTING.

The REV. E. M. STIRES, D.D.

MR. GEORGE ZABRISKIE.

The REV. H. M. BIRCKHEAD.

MR. HENRY LEWIS MORRIS.

The Rev. Dr. C. C. Tiffany, Chairman of the Committee on Canons, presented the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS.

The Committee on Canons respectfully report as follows:

At the last Convention the following substitute for Article I. of the Constitution was approved by the Convention and referred to this Convention for final action, viz:

ARTICLE I.

There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese in each year. It shall be held at the Cathedral on the second Wednesday in November, unless the Bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee, or, in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, unless the Standing Committee shall appoint another place or time.

The Committee recommend that the foregoing substitute for Article I. of the Constitution be now adopted.

Mr. F. L. Stetson moved that the consideration of the substitute to Article I. of the Constitution be referred to the next Diocesan Convention, which was adopted.

At the last Convention amendments of Article III. of the Constitution, so that such article as amended should read as follows, were approved by the Convention and referred to this Convention for final action, viz:

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall consist of the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor (if there be one) of the Diocese and of Clerical and Lay Members.

The Clerical Members shall be those Clergymen canonically resident within the Diocese not less than six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention who shall be either Archdeacons of the Diocese or settled in some Church in union with the Convention, or in the Cathedral, or employed as Missionaries under the direction of the Convention, or engaged within the Diocese as Professors or Instructors in any incorporated institution of learning, or as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated charitable institution, or Clergymen who having attained the age of 65 years shall have retired from the active work of the ministry after holding for not less than ten years one or more of the positions hereinbefore named.

The Lay Members shall be male delegates from the several Churches in union with the Convention, not exceeding three from each Church, chosen by the Vestry or Congregation.

The Committee recommend that the foregoing amended Article III. be now adopted.

Thereupon the Article was adopted by a concurrent vote of the clergy and laity.

At the last Convention the following substitute for Article IV. of the Constitution was approved by the Convention, and referred to this Convention for final action, viz:

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with such services as shall be appointed by the Bishop, or in case of his absence or inability to act or of a vacancy in the Episcopate by the Standing Committee.

The Committee recommend that the foregoing substitute for Article IV. of the Constitution be now adopted.

Thereupon the Article was adopted by a concurrent vote of the clergy and laity.

At the last Convention the adoption of a new Article of the Constitution, to be numbered VIII., and the amendment of the present Article VIII. by changing its number to IX., were approved by the Convention and referred to this Convention for final action, as follows, viz:

Adopt a new Article, to be numbered VIII. and to read as follows:

ARTICLE VIII.

Wherever in the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee, in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

Amend Article VIII. by changing its number to Article IX.

The Committee recommend that the foregoing proposed new Article VIII. of the Constitution and the amendment of the present Article VIII. by changing its number to IX. be now adopted.

Thereupon the Article was adopted by a concurrent vote of the clergy and laity.

At the last Convention the following substitute for Article VII. of the Constitution was submitted by the Committee on Canons, and, at the request of the Committee, was referred back to the Committee for further consideration and for report to this Convention, viz:

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and the Laity shall deliberate in one body. In voting each clerical member shall be entitled to one vote. When votes are taken by orders the lay delegates of each Church shall be entitled to one vote, except that when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention prior to the last Wednesday in September in the year of our Lord 1859; the delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to one vote for each Church or Chapel.

In all cases other than elections, and in the case of the election of a Bishop Coadjutor, the concurrence of the Bishop, when present, and of the Clerical and Lay Members shall be necessary to the action of the Convention.

Except in cases where a vote by orders is required, the concurrence of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Members voting shall constitute a vote; but in any case a vote by orders may be required by five members. When a vote by orders is taken the concurrence of a majority of the members of each order voting shall constitute a vote. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor the two orders shall always vote separately.

At the same Convention the following further substitute for Article VII. of the Constitution also was referred to the Committee on Canons for consideration and for report to this Convention, viz:

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate in one body. In voting each clerical member shall be entitled to one vote, the Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor having the right to vote with the Clergy. When votes are taken by orders, the lay delegates of each Church shall be entitled to one vote, except that when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention prior to the last Wednesday in September in the year of our Lord 1859, the delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to one vote for each Church or Chapel.

Except in cases where a vote by orders is required, the concurrence of a majority of the clerical and lay members present shall constitute a vote; but in any case a vote by orders may be required by five members. When a vote by orders is taken the concurrence of a majority of each order shall constitute a vote. In the election of a Bishop the two orders shall always vote separately.

The Committee recommend that Article VII. of the Constitution be amended so that the said Article shall read as follows:

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and the Laity shall deliberate in one body. In voting each clerical member shall be entitled to one vote. When votes are taken by orders the lay delegates of each Church shall be entitled to one vote, except that when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention prior to the last Wednesday in September in the year of our Lord 1859; the delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to one vote for each Church or Chapel.

Except in cases where a vote by orders is required, the concurrence of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Members voting shall constitute a vote; but in any case a vote by orders may be required by five members. When a vote by orders is taken the concurrence of a majority of the members of each order voting shall constitute a vote. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor the two orders shall always vote separately.

The Committee recommend that the said Article as so amended be approved and referred to the next Convention for final action.

The Rev. Dr. Grosvenor moved that the words "the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor having the right to vote with the clergy" be added to the proposed article and that it be referred back to the Committee on Canons for further consideration; which was adopted.

At the last Convention the following proposed addition to Canon X ("Of the Standing Committee") was referred to the Committee on Canons, and, at the request of the Committee, recommitted to them for further consideration and for report to this Convention, viz:

PROPOSED ADDITION TO CANON XII., OF STANDING COMMITTEE

SEC. 5. Whenever an application shall be made to the Standing Committee by any Church for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property which has been consecrated, or which is used for regular religious services by the congregation of such Church, or which is used for a rectory or parsonage, the Standing Committee shall not consent to such application to sell or mortgage, until a Parish meeting has been called, and the proposition shall have been submitted to such meeting. Such meeting shall be called in a manner to be designated by the Standing Committee.

All persons of full age, belonging to the Parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such meeting, shall be qualified voters at such meeting, and shall be entitled to notice thereof. The action of such meeting shall be transmitted to the Standing Committee by the Secretary of the meeting.

In the opinion of the Committee, the protection of real property, belonging to churches, which it is proposed to sell or mortgage, and of the interests of the congregations of such churches in such real property, already sufficiently safeguarded by existing law; and the Committee, therefore, are not in favor of the foregoing proposed addition to Canon XII.

The following proposed amendment of Canon XVII. ("Of Contributions for Church Objects") has been considered by the Committee on Canons, viz:

Resolved, That Canon 17 be amended by adding thereto a new section, to be known as Section 4, to read as follows:

All treasurers of Churches and of all charitable and other institutions connected with Churches, and all custodians of funds belonging to such Churches or charitable or other institutions, shall be required to give security or be jointly responsible with a trust company for the faithful care and protection of such funds. And all expenses incident to giving such security shall be defrayed out of the said funds.

In the opinion of the Committee, it is not desirable that all custodians of funds belonging to Churches and to charitable and other institutions connected with Churches should be required to furnish security, and in many cases it would be impracticable to make this requirement, and would seriously interfere with important branches of the work of such Churches and institutions. The Committee believe that it would not be wise to make any such general rule as is proposed, and that it should be left, as at present, to each Church to adopt such methods for the protection of its funds as it may consider most conducive to its own interests.

Mr. W. N. Wilmer moved that the subject be recommitted to the Committee on Canons for further consideration and the committee instructed to confer with the mover of the resolution; which was adopted.

The following proposed amendment of Canon XVII. ("Of Contributions for Church Objects") has been considered by the Committee on Canons, viz:

Resolved, That Section 3 of Canon XVII. be altered by substituting the words 'Seamen's Church Institute of New York' for the words 'New York Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York.'

The Committee recommend the adoption of the proposed amendment.

On motion of Mr. Stetson it was adopted by a concurrent vote of clergy and laity.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the proposed amendment of the last two sentences of Section 3 of Canon X. ("Of Deputies to the General Convention"), recommend that the said last two sentences of Section 3 of Canon X. be amended so as to read as follows:

The Bishop, also, from time to time shall designate one of the Provisional Deputies to supply, either temporarily or permanently, any vacancy caused by the death, absence or inability of any Deputy. During such period as shall be stated in the certificate issued to him by the Bishop, the Provisional Deputy so designated shall possess, and shall be entitled to exercise, the power and authority of the Deputy in place of whom he shall have been designated.

Which was adopted by concurrent vote of clergy and laity.

The Committee on Canons respectfully report upon the resolution introduced by the Rev. Henry Barker with regard to the revision of the Rules of Order.

The Committee recommend that the following be adopted as a new rule of order to be numbered XXVII.

XXVII.—Whenever in the Rules of Order provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

The Committee have not been able for lack of time to consider the general subject of revising the Rules of Order, and recommend that on that point the following resolution be adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be instructed to consider the Rules of Order with a view to their revision and amendment, and to report their recommendations to the next Convention.

By concurrent vote of both orders the new Rule of Order was adopted, and the resolution recommended was also adopted.

The Committee on Canons respectfully report upon Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson's proposed amendment to Canon XVIII., Sec. 3 [III.]

In the judgment of the Committee it is desirable that the Archdeacons should be appointed by the Bishop upon nominations made by the Archdeacons.

They therefore recommend, as a substitute for Mr. Stetson's proposed amendment, that the first sentence of Canon XVIII., Section 3 [III.], be amended so as to read as follows:

"(III.) The Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Archdeaconry and appointed by the Bishop, and shall continue in office until his successor shall have been appointed. The nomination shall be made as soon as practicable after the occurrence of a vacancy in the office or the rejection of any previous nomination by the Bishop."

By concurrent vote of both orders the amendment was adopted.

The Convention took a recess till 2 o'clock.

On reassembling, the Rev. Dr. Vibbert presented the following report:

Report

OF COMMITTEE ON RACE BISHOPS.

The Committee, to whom was referred the communication from the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Louisiana, respectfully report:

The subject of the adaptation of the Episcopate to the work of the Church among the negroes is actually pending in the General Convention. It has been directly referred to one joint committee, and indirectly to another. The reports of these committees to the General Convention at Richmond will be the basis of adequate and competent deliberation. Any such consideration of the matter in question by the Convention of New York is impossible by reason of pressure of business and lack of time.

Further, it seems inexpedient for this Diocese to depart from its wise position of not prejudging by its Convention any question already in the possession of the General Convention of the Church.

The Committee recommend the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Convention is unable to give proper consideration to the question referred to it by the joint committee upon the memorial to the General Convention of 1904 in reference to a Canon on Special Missionary Bishops; that any opinion which this Convention might express under the circumstances would be misleading and perhaps harmful; that a copy of this report be sent to the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Louisiana, and that the Committee be discharged.

Which was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Vibbert the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Chair be requested to appoint a committee consisting of the Bishop Coadjutor, the five Archdeacons, five parochial clergymen and five laymen, whose duties shall be:

1. To apportion among the congregations of the diocese the entire amount apportioned to this diocese by the Board of Missions of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society for the fiscal year 1906-07.

2. To communicate to each congregation through its minister the amount of its apportionment; and

3. To take such other steps to enlist the full coöperation of all the congregations of the diocese on behalf of the Domestic and Foreign Missions of the Church, as, in the judgment of the committee, may be desirable.

The Chair appointed the Committee as follows:

The BISHOP COADJUTOR.

The ARCHDEACONS.

The Rev. E. M. Stires, D.D.	Mr. F. L. Stetson.
The Rev. J. Lewis Parks, D.D.	Mr. E. P. Wheeler.

Mr. Everett P. Wheeler moved that the report of Committee on Canons in reference to the amendment to Canon XII. be referred back to that committee and that they be requested to confer with the movers of that resolution, which was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Applegate moved the following, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Committee on Apportionment for General Missions be instructed to base the parochial apportionment, so far as practicable, on the item of "Current Expenses," as printed in the parochial reports in the last Diocesan Journal; and to use a "sliding scale" in determining the per cent. of "Current Expenses" apportioned.

The Rev. J. E. Freeman moved the following resolutions, which were adopted :

Whereas, this Convention has listened with deep interest to the report of the Sunday-school Commission of the Diocese, particularly with regard to the importance of the more thorough and extensive religious education of the young, and the subsequent appeals of the Bishop Coadjutor and the Rev. T. F. Turner of Calvary Parish; and

Whereas, There is no matter of greater importance to the Church to-day than the religious training of her youth; and

Whereas, Several other dioceses, much smaller in strength and wealth than ourselves and with schools no less efficient than our own, have provided Field Secretaries, or are about to do so, notably Massachusetts, Michigan, Virginia, Rhode Island and several others;

Therefore, Be it resolved that this Convention of the Diocese of New York respectfully recommends to the New York Sunday-school Association, in conjunction with the New York Sunday-school Commission, that an immediate endeavor be made to secure the appointment of one or more Field Secretaries who shall devote exclusive time to the organization and grading of the schools and to the practical training of the teachers throughout the diocese; and be it further

Resolved, That the parishes, through their clergy, vestries and Sunday-schools be urged to contribute liberally to the support of an undertaking of such vital and widespread interest.

The Rev. Dr. Harris presented the Report of St. Stephen's College.

Report

OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

During the past year the following changes have been made in the Faculty. The Rev. Herbert M. Clarke, Ph.D., of Harvard University, who was Acting Professor of Modern Languages, has been made full Professor. Mr. T. McN. Simpson, who was Acting Professor of Mathematics, has resigned, and Mr. James H. Willock, of Rutgers College, has been appointed in his place.

Twenty-three new students have been admitted this term, and we have now fifty students, with the prospect that every room will be filled next year. The quality of the new material is on the whole excellent. It must be remembered that our students are older than the average college undergraduate. The new men admitted this year averaged over twenty-one years of age, and many of them had been engaged in business pursuits before they came to us. Many of these were members of St. Andrew's Brotherhood, and the work of prayer and service in the Brotherhood had led them to consider the question of entering Holy Orders. Almost all our students are looking forward to the Ministry.

St. Stephen's is practically the only Church College in the country which opens its doors to such men and enables them to acquire during their college course the thorough knowledge of Latin and Greek, which are so essential to the equipment of the candidate for orders before he enters the Theological Seminary for his special training in theology.

It would be hard to overestimate the importance of St. Stephen's as a training school for the Ministry. Of our students to-day, one is a native Haytian, the son of a Haytian clergyman, who expects to return to Hayti to preach to his own countrymen. Four others are native Swedes, who have been here long enough to acquire some familiarity with the English language, and who have been sent to us by our faithful and indefatigable missionary to the Swedes, the Rev. Mr. Hammarsköld. He has had the greatest difficulty in getting fit persons to minister to the hundreds of thousands of Swedes in this land, and St. Stephen's is helping him by educating and training these young men to the work.

The only thing which hampers and hinders us in our work is the inadequacy of our financial resources. We need and need at once the help of generous Churchmen, and we are sure that if the importance of this work was understood by the clergy and laity of this diocese the means to carry on and enlarge it would soon be forthcoming. Meanwhile we are trying patiently to do the best we can with the means at our disposal, because we realize that were it not for St. Stephen's the Bishops of many of our dioceses would not know what to do with the earnest young man, who, after having had several years of business training, goes to his Bishop and offers to relinquish the prospects he already has and devote himself to preparation for the sacred ministry. We need such men—men with determination and self-sacrifice, but if we are to get the most out of them, we must give them the sound learning and the academic training needed to fit them for their life's work.

Brethren of the clergy and laity, will you not help us to do this?

THOS. R. HARRIS,
Warden.

The Rev. Dr. Harris presented and read the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Committee on the General Theological Seminary reports that the Seminary has opened prosperously this fall with about the usual number of students.

During the past year the Rev. C. W. E. Body, D.D., "Clement C. Moore," Professor of the Literature and Interpretation of the Old Testament, was obliged, on account of ill health, to resign his Professorship, and was made Emeritus Professor. The duties of this chair are being taken during the current year by the Rev. Dr. Batten, Rector of St. Mark's Church.

The Rev. Dr. Isbon T. Beckwith, "Glorvina Rossell Hoffman," Professor of the Literature and Interpretation of the New Testament, has also been obliged to resign his chair, and the rev. Charles C. Edmunds has been elected to fill the vacancy.

The Rev. Charles N. Shepard has been elected to the new Chair of Hebrew and Cognate Languages.

The Committee take great pleasure in commending most heartily the very evident desire on the part of the authorities of the Seminary to increase in every possible way the efficiency and usefulness of the institution.

Signed,

LAWRENCE T. COLE.

Report

OF THE NEW YORK BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

The New York Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions respectfully reports the following:

For Domestic Missions.....	$11,137.20
" Indian 	5,997.06
" Colored 	7,480.20
" Foreign 	12,193.29
" Diocesan 	200.00
Through the Junior Department, including the Babies' Branch...	1,888.61
Total	$38,896.36

In addition, 232 Missionary boxes, valued at $16,567.20, were sent to all parts of the Mission field, making the total for last year's gifts $55,463.56.

This sum is considerably less than last year's figures, which is somewhat due to an individual gift of $14,500 to the African Mission, which swelled our total of a year ago. The work has been carried on, however, with the same steadiness and earnestness as in former years, which is shown in a greater desire for a clearer and deeper knowledge of the work rather than in larger figures. The number of mission study classes, beginning with three normal and spreading to twenty-four smaller ones in as many different parishes, is a proof of this.

In order to be able to give a full report of the year's work before September 1st of each year to the Secretary to the Woman's Auxiliary, the fiscal year of this Branch has been transferred from September 1 to May 1, necessitating a change in the Constitution.

A change in the conduct of the Advent meeting has also been deemed advisable. It will now, therefore, occupy only the morning hours of the first Wednesday in Advent, instead of holding two sessions, and the Corporate Communion, which formerly opened that meeting, will take place some day during Lent of each year.

It is with many deep regrets that the New York Branch has been obliged to accept the resignation of its President, Mrs. Mary E. Watson, for five years its faithful and zealous leader, and only because of her enfeebled health was it considered and on her acceptance of the lighter duties of its Vice-president.

We would gladly report that, as a Branch, we have met our apportionment of $20,000 to the Board of Missions, but though the total amount of our gifts is an increase on this sum, the larger portion of it has been given toward "specials."

Hoping another year may see the accomplishment of this task set before us, we respectfully submit this report.

MARGARET A. TOMES,

President, New York Branch.

136 East 30th St., November '8, 1906.

The Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention authorizes the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, if there be a surplus in such Fund, to apply it to the relief of the widows and orphans of deceased clergymen, if this be found necessary.

The Rev. P. Harrower offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That at each annual Convention the Bishop shall appoint a Diocesan Sunday-school Commission, to be known as the New York Sunday-school Commission. It shall consist of not less than ten members, part of whom shall be clergymen and part laymen.

It shall be the duty of the Commission to study the problem of Religious Education, to investigate its conditions and needs, with a view especially of raising the standard of religious instruction in the diocese, furthering the work of Sunday-schools and all associations, and to foster in every way whatever may aid in the building of religious faith, Christian character and the spiritual life.

The Commission shall report annually to the Convention.

The Rev. P. Harrower offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee on Arrangements for Convention be appointed by the Chair.

The Chair appointed as such committee:

Rev. Pascal Harrower.
Rev. A. T. Ashton, D.D.
Rev. George A. Strong.
Mr. John P. Faure.
Mr. Theo. K. Gibbs.

Mr. Geo. Zabriskie, in behalf of the Committee on Canons, moved that the following proposed amendment to Article VII. of the Constitution be approved and referred to the next Convention for adoption.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and the Laity shall deliberate in one body. In voting each clerical member shall be entitled to one vote, the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor having the right to vote with the clergy. When votes are taken by orders the lay delegates of each Church shall be entitled to one vote, except that when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention prior to the last Wednesday in September in the year of our Lord 1859; the delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to one vote for each Church or Chapel.

In all cases other than elections, and in the case of the election of a Bishop Coadjutor, the concurrence of the Bishop, when present, and of the Clerical and Lay Members shall be necessary to the action of the Convention.

Except in cases where a vote by orders is required, the concurrence of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Members voting shall constitute a vote; but in any case a vote by orders may be required by five members. When a vote by orders is taken the concurrence of a majority of the members of each order voting shall constitute a vote. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor the two orders shall always vote separately.

The proposed amendment was approved and referred to the next Convention for adoption.

Mr. Geo. Zabriskie, in behalf of the Committee on Canons, reported that the Committee had reconsidered the resolution introduced by Mr. Wilmer with regard to the giving security by Treasurers and that in their judgment the end to be attained does not demand the enactment of a new canon, but will be sufficiently accomplished by the following resolution, which they recommend to the Convention for adoption:

Resolved, That the Convention recommend to all parishes and incorporated charitable institutions connected with the Church, that the treasurer be required to give security for the faithful performance of his duties, or to place in the charge of a responsible trust company the custody of their funds, the expenses connected with such security being defrayed out of the corporate funds.

On motion the resolution was adopted.

There is one problem that may well engage the attention of this Convention, and that is that of our "down town" Churches. A difficult and often delicate perplexity it is, in the case of parishes, the whole constituency and environment of which has radically changed, to determine what is its duty. The people to whom once it ministered, who originally reared the edifice and made of the Church a living and healing force, have all departed—many of them altogether out of this life, and many out of the neighborhood. What, under such circumstances, is to be done? There is, not unnaturally, a strong impulse, born of a high religious sentiment, which, however little we may agree with it, we cannot but honor. But the Church exists, we may not forget, to minister to living souls, and not merely to cherish tender and sacred, but inevitably fading, memories.

And, to-day, in our New York we have an aspect of this problem which is both unique and imperious. It is unique in that nothing like it is coming to pass, or has come to pass, in other and older metropolitan cities. In none of these, London, Paris, Berlin, or any other, is there flowing into its streets that vast and steady tide which to-day makes New York almost as polyglot as Constantinople, and which stands for a population, often, of alien speech, and, oftenest, of alien Faith. But the situation is not only thus unique, it is imperious; and it is so because we cannot hope to make of our fellow-men who are flocking to these shores our competent and exemplary fellow-citizens, until that passion for freedom, which has brought so many of them here, has been interpenetrated and ennobled by a diviner passion for Him who said, "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." *

And so, this really tremendous question of the lonely and forsaken "down-town" Church ought not to be left to the isolated parishes alone, but should be the anxious concern of all of us, thinking, and asking, praying, and acting, together. I commend it to the earnest consideration of this Convention.

A kindred question, though more largely one of Diocesan convenience, is presented in the present situation of our Diocesan House. It is but little more than twenty years since the late Miss Catharine Lorillard Wolfe made, to the Diocese, the noble gift of the present building, and a sum of money for its endowment. But, already, it is too far down town for the uses that it was designed to serve. I do not forget that Staten Island is now a part of the City of New York, and that, in speaking of a metropolitan centre, we must recognize geographical facts. But the centre of a city is its ganglionic centre, and the ganglionic centre of the City of New York lies nearest to its great centres of transportation, which in turn stand for its Diocesan centre, or the neighborhood most convenient to the whole Diocese. And therefore I shall be glad if the "Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Convention of the Diocese of New York," who are somewhat doubtful as to the extent of their powers in this matter, shall be authorized, by some general resolution of this Body's, to take such action with reference to the Diocesan House as they may deem wise and expedient.

* St. John, viii, 36.

There is one other word which it is proper that I should say before closing this address; and as it bears upon a subject of supreme importance much in the minds of men, and in one aspect on it, to which I need not more particularly refer, pre-eminently in the minds of Churchmen to-day, I may not hesitate to say it.

In the Pastoral Letter addressed, by the House of Bishops, at the General Convention of 1904, there is this sentence: "If one finds, whatever his place or office in the Church, that he has lost his hold upon her fundamental verities, then, in the name of common honesty, let him be silent or withdraw." With a curious ingenuity, or obtuseness, these words have been interpreted as if they were not descriptive of two alternatives, but only of one. But a man in Holy Orders may lose his hold upon a fundamental verity either temporarily, or permanently. In other words, he may, first of all, for a season find himself perplexed by doubts which have not passed into ultimate convictions. In such a case—and, as I happen to have been the author of the Pastoral Letter, I may venture to state that it was the case during his priesthood (as described to me by himself) of one of our most heroic, saintly and able bishops, now gone to his reward, which was in my mind—in such a case, one may wisely withdraw, temporarily, from the exercise of his ministry, and seek by prayer and study for the solution of his doubts.

But if those doubts are not resolved by such a process, then, as it appears to me, the other alternative becomes imperative. Of course, there are beliefs which are, so to speak, in suspensu; and others, concerning which various opinions may be held, and have obtained, in all ages of the Church. But when these have been enumerated, there remain still others which are fundamental and universal. They touch the foundations of the Faith, and they are held alike throughout all Christendom. We may, if we choose, stretch that last word until it shall include societies which call themselves Christian and yet reject, e.g., the doctrine of the Divinity of Christ, or that of His miraculous birth; but, with every allowance for these, the fact which I have affirmed is one, and that Faith of Christendom which is affirmed in the Apostles and Nicene Creeds is no less one. A man in Holy Orders who does not hold it, has no place in the Ministry of this Church; and if it is his office (as he may easily believe that it is) to emancipate the Church from so gross a superstition, then he must do so from without, and not from within.

For it is impossible, in the minds of people who hold fast to the principles of common honesty, to respect either the consistency or the integrity of one who eats the Church's bread, accepts the Church's dignities, enjoys the Church's honors, and impugns the Church's Faith. If he must assail her beliefs, then, the dictate of ordinary uprightness would plainly seem to be that he must, first of all, withdraw from a fellowship to whose fundamental beliefs he cannot candidly assent.

Is it asked, If this be the duty of one in Holy Orders, is it any the less a layman's duty? I answer unequivocally that the two do not stand upon the same level, and are not bound by identical obligations. "Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief," cried one who came to Jesus in the face of a challenge which constrained his upright soul to that meagre confession. And Jesus did not reject him—nor may we!

But when the question is one of consistency with one's Ordination vows, it ascends to a much higher level, and is concerned with a far more explicit obligation. And, though the discharge of that obligation may involve most costly sacrifices, I am persuaded that a supreme power of the ministry will consist in the willingness to make them! Is it said that the spirit of our times is pre-eminently a sordid spirit? Then believe me, men and brethren, the calling of the Church is to illustrate a heroism which can rise superior to it; and if there are those who can seek the priest's office for a piece of bread, let us at least demonstrate that there is no man who has surrendered his faith in her fundamental verities who can be guilty of the baseness of clinging to any holy office in which he is not honestly entitled to that bread.

The whole question bids the vision of the Church of to-day to lift itself to a wider outlook. For one, I am glad and thankful to say that that outlook is full of inspiration. I do not forget that readjustment of the Faith, that loosening of the bonds of old beliefs, which must inevitably run, now and then, into the extravagancies of denial, of which I have already spoken. But underneath them all, there is the deep undertone of that cry of St. Peter's, "Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life." As I was writing these lines, I found myself reading a little volume entitled "A Practical Programme for Working Men,"* published anonymously, and which I beg to commend to every member of this Convention. I do not by any means unreservedly agree with it, and there is much of it from which I must unreservedly dissent. But the fine thing about this striking volume is that it leads us straight into the presence of Jesus Christ; and, in the face of those tremendous social questions, with which, more than with any other, it is the office of this age to grapple, makes Him the final Arbiter and Judge!

Believe me, my Brothers, He is! We may look back with longing to the days and the ways of our fathers. They are passed, and ended, and we shall never see them again! Ours it is to hold fast to the conviction that, whatever the changes in our hour, a more glorious day is yet to dawn, a more perfect vision of "the Christ that is to be," is yet to break upon our waiting eyes!

ADDRESS OF BISHOP GREER

In addition to the report of my official acts during the past year, and which according to the established use will be printed in the Journal of the Convention, there are a few not unimportant matters bearing upon the work of the Church in the Diocese, some of which I have been asked to bring to your notice and which I herewith submit for your consideration.

It is doubtless known to most of you, if not to all of you, that for the past few years there has existed in this city an institution which is popularly known as "The Children's Court," or, in the language of the Statute creating it, a "Court for Juvenile Misdemeanants." Before the passage of the Statute, in 1902, all juvenile offenders were arraigned and tried in the same Court with adults, many of whom were criminals of the worst and vilest type; and where, in addition to the demoralizing influences of such degrading exposure, the pressure of business, as the Judges state, was often so great and heavy that the children could not receive that individual and thorough examination to which a child is entitled and always should receive. It is now required, however, that the Children's Court be held in a building separate and apart from any other Court, to be presided over in turn by the different Judges of the Court of Special Sessions, each of whom, while sitting in the Children's Court, acts in the double capacity of both Judge and Jury, and is vested besides with a quasi-parental authority. This Children's Court, according to the Annual Report of the Judges for 1905, deals with the largest number of children's cases of any similar Court in the world.

But there is a difficulty in disposing of some of these cases in accordance with the provisions of the Statute. For the law creating the Court requires that the children who are convicted of misdemeanors in it shall be sent to institutions where the religious instruction given shall be in accordance with the religious faith of the parents. And this is where the Court finds itself embarrassed in its attempted conformity to the requirements of the Statute—not with reference to the children of Roman Catholic parentage, as they are provided for with an adequate institutional plant; but with reference to the children who are not of that parentage and for whom at present there is not adequate provision.

That is a need which has not yet been met, but which should and must be met if the experiment of the Children's Court in this city, which everyone regards as a most enlightened measure and in the interest of good citizenship, is to be successfully worked and carried out. There are, for instance, in the Roman Catholic Church Protectory in the Borough of the Bronx some two or three hundred children who are not of Roman Catholic parentage; and while the Roman Catholic friends, in view of the existing straitened situation, are willing to receive them, they do so simply as a matter of accommodating courtesy, and it is not fair to them or to the children to have this burden continued. Our Hebrew fellow citizens recognizing the need of such an institution for the children of their faith, have already undertaken to make provision for it, and are about to erect such an institution, if they have not already done so. For Protestant children, however, the need still exists, and the Judges of the Children's Court and other City officials, and many private citizens, as well as the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, have from time to time called attention to it and expressed the hope and wish to have the need supplied. Happily it is now about to be supplied and the preliminary steps in that direction have been already taken. An organization has been formed and incorporated, called Hope Farm, which has purchased the property known as Priory Farm, in Dutchess County, in this diocese, the Trustees of that property having decided, for reasons satisfactory to themselves, to discontinue the maintenance of that work. This property will hereafter be used as a Church Protectory for children of Protestant parentage. The State Board of Charities has given its unanimous approval to the project, and it has already been placed upon the City Budget for the ensuing year. This will go very far towards the maintenance of the work, but not quite far enough; and I have therefore been requested to bring it to your notice, which I very gladly do, and to ask that you will give your encouraging support. Money is needed at once to put it in working order, and it is the hope of the management to begin the work early in 1907.

Passing from this needed work in behalf of children, let me first a moment bring to your notice another, not in behalf of children, and yet in behalf of those who, like children, cannot plead for themselves, and who therefore are apt to be, in this age of haste and rush, neglected or forgotten. I mean the work to which that devoted man of God, the late Dr. Thomas Gallaudet, gave his time and service, gave indeed his life, and which is at present carried on by the Reverend Dr. Chamberlain in St. Ann's Church for Deaf Mutes, under the guiding and fostering care of the Rector and people of St. Matthew's Parish in this city. And yet, while it is parochially connected, it is not in its claims a strictly parochial work, but one which should and does appeal to the diocese at large and especially to Churchmen in the City of New York.

Its special need at present, and for which I am asked to voice its mute appeal, is for a sum of money, or for sums of money, which in the aggregate will be enough to extend the present Church building out to the sidewalk line. It now stands back from the sidewalk at a distance of twenty-five feet, and is reached by a bridge covering a ditch; and what it is proposed or hoped at least to do, is to cover that ditch with a building in front of the present structure, and which, for these silent children of God, who are so much shut out from that larger and fuller life which is enjoyed by others, shall serve as a Parish House, and shall also be a memorial to the late Dr. Gallaudet. His voice, too, is silent now, and cannot plead as once it did for these children of God, whom living he loved and served so faithfully and well. But the Church in this diocese and the Churchmen of this city must not and do not forget him, and will, I am sure, be glad for his sake and the work's sake to take some active and generous part in helping to erect this memorial to him. It is estimated that the building when finished will cost $30,000, $3,000 of which is already in hand. Contributions for the purpose may be sent to me or the Reverend Arthur H. Judge, Rector of St. Matthew's Parish; or, better still, I ask your favorable hearing if you should be personally waited on by an authorized representative.

May I also bring to your notice still another class of persons who, because of their infirmities, cannot plead for themselves, and who are therefore a special charge upon the Church of Christ. I refer to the sick poor, and especially the sick and aged poor in the Metropolitan Hospital on Blackwell's Island. I need not tell you, for you know, of the good and faithful work which is done not only there but elsewhere, in similar institutions, by the City Mission Society. Its indefatigable Superintendent does not let us forget it. But there is one particular need in connection with its work for which I make an appeal, and that is the need of a Chapel in which to conduct the Services in the Metropolitan Hospital. These Services are at present conducted in a ward, or rather in a very limited and contracted space at the end of one of the wards, which is not only not suitable for such religious Services, but is positively unsuitable, and where it is difficult to conduct them with dignity and reverence. There is, as you know, at the other end of the Island a very beautiful Chapel, erected a few years since through the thoughtful liberality of a layman of Grace Church; and it is my hope that someone may be found, some person or some parish, to meet this real and pressing need for the poor and sick and aged ones in the Metropolitan Hospital.

And in speaking of the work of the City Mission Society, may I also say in passing that it is a subject for congratulation that it has been decided to turn over to that Society another important task, and that is the task of caring for the increasing number of immigrants arriving at this port. And that suggests still another large and important subject, too large indeed for an adequate treatment now in this Convention address, and yet in regard to which some action should be taken, and taken soon, if in the midst of a growing polyglot population the Church would hold its own and do its proper work. One often hears it said that in certain sections or quarters of the city there are so many persons whose racial affinities are different from ours that the work of the Church is hopeless in those city sections and must be given up. But why? Why is it hopeless? Why must it be given up? Is the work of the Church to be confined to the Anglo-Saxon race? Is not the Gospel of Jesus Christ everywhere meant for all and equally for all? Were not its earliest preachers its first and earliest teachers, preachers and disciples, men of that race which is so very largely represented here? Why should it be thought so hopeless, so useless, to try to teach them now with that Gospel of Jesus Christ, which is declared to be the power of God unto salvation to every creature of every race, and to the Jew first. But if instead of that he is excluded now from the scope of the Church's work, then this is certain, that the scope of the Church's work, in this city at least, will soon become, and at no distant day, not only a very narrow but a constantly narrowing scope. The subject I confess is a difficult one to treat, and yet the time has come when it should be considered, and I therefore submit it for your consideration.

And further, let me suggest whether the time has not also come when an organized effort should be made in behalf of a more aggressive and vigorous Church Extension all along the line, not only in the city but throughout the diocese? We have, to be sure, our Diocesan Board of Missions and our Archidiaconal System. And these are excellent agencies for missionary work, and experience has shown that the work which they are doing, as far as it goes, is good. Yet it seems to me that there should be some other and supplemental agency to reinforce their work, something perhaps like a Church Extension Society or a Church Extension Committee, such as our Presbyterian and Methodist brethren have, and whose business it should be—not as in the case of the Diocesan Board of Missions—to contribute towards the payment of the missionaries' stipends, but to assist from time to time new and feeble yet hopeful mission congregations in building Houses of Worship, and also to assist churches already established but burdened with a debt beyond their means to pay and beyond their strength to carry. There are in the diocese such missions and such churches, which by a little timely help, judiciously bestowed, would at once be liberated into a greater and larger and more effective service; and some provision should be made by which they might receive this liberating help. It was in some such way as this that some of the churches in the City of New York were enabled to become strong, by the help which they received from the venerable Trinity Parish in the form of friendly loans, without exacting from them any interest charge, and which loans are still carried by some of them. If now in their prosperity they should pay off these loans, not all at once perhaps but gradually and in installments, and with the understanding which might be arranged with the original generous lender that they should be applied to the help of other Churches, it would be at least the beginning of a Church Extension Fund which, if wisely administered, would no doubt steadily grow.

Finally, let me briefly speak of what is after all our chief and greatest need, and which must first be met in order to meet these various needs to which I have referred and many others like them.

The Christian Church, it has been suggested, has often in the course of its history moved in an orbit like an ellipse and around two foci, the Social and the Spiritual, sometimes nearer to one and then again to the other. For some time past it has been revolving around the Social focal point, and we have had in consequence the Institutional Church with its numerous and varied social forms of service and humanitarian effort. Its preachers in the English Church, says the English writer whose simile I have borrowed, were Kingsley and Maurice; its prophet, Thomas Carlyle; its poet, Alfred Tennyson, with "Maud" and "The Princess" and "Locksley Hall"; its statesmen, Bright and Cobden, passionate for the rights and welfare of the people; its martyr, Arnold Toynbee, burning out his life in the effort to instil into the heart and conscience of the favored and the rich the sense of their obligation toward the suffering and the poor. And the impact of that movement, with its fine and noble humanitarian impulse, has been felt by us in the American Church, and in many ways we have tried and in many ways we are trying now to give expression to it. But are we not also beginning now to feel, that while we have not placed too much our emphasis on this, we have not placed it quite enough on something else than this, and that our attempts at social amelioration must find their feeding source and spring in a spiritual consecration. The two kinds of Christian work, the Social and the Spiritual, cannot indeed be parted; they must be done together. The Institutional Church must be above all a spiritual Church, with a deep and strong spiritual life to quicken and inspire it. And so instead of moving at different times around the Spiritual and the Social, in an orbit like an ellipse, it would revolve around them both together in an orbit like a circle, with Jesus Christ as the Centre.

The call, therefore, my brethren, which comes to us to-day, is not so much a call to some particular kind of Christian work or service, as to a complete surrender of ourselves to Christ, making Him supreme, as He claims to be, and as on the Gospel pages we find Him pictured to us. Towards His own disciples, says a recent Cambridge essayist, and those in whom He sees the making of disciples, His imperiousness is unbounded, and all of His would-be followers must be prepared to deny themselves in a sense beyond anything which our use of the term commonly denotes. They must deny themselves in the sense in which Peter denied Jesus, when he said, "I know not the Man of Whom you speak!"

So it was then, and so it is now; and when we learn to make such complete submergence of ourselves in Him as to efface ourselves we will not withhold ourselves from any good and needed work in the service of mankind.

On September 14, 1906, occurred the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of this famous old church, which so prominently figured in the American Revolution. Founded in 1756. Church—the original structure—erected about 1760, and still in use and in good condition. In this building convened the Fourth Provincial Congress, 1776-1777, along with the Committee of Safety. During the Revolution it was used as a hospital for the wounded soldiers.

The 150th anniversary was presided over by the Rt. Rev. H. C. Potter, D.D., Bishop of New York, assisted by the Rector. Thirty-five of the clergy attended the services, at which Rev. H. O. Ladd, S.T.D., a former Rector, delivered the historical address. Postprandial speeches bearing on the history of the church were made in the Public Hall.

After a Rectorship of two years, I have thoroughly revised a somewhat confused "List of Communicants," and find residing within my cure 185 confirmed persons. Of these 140 are actual communicants; the others are not disaffected members, but simply indifferent non-churchgoers. To report "185" exaggerates our real strength, so I have put down "140," while holding on my books the other 45 in hopes of a future return to the duties of the Church.

A site was purchased by Bishop Greer last Fall (1905) on the corner of Woodlawn Road and Bainbridge Avenue, with a frontage of 138 ft. and a depth of 100 ft. This plot of ground commands an extensive view of the Moshulu Parkway and of Bronx Park. The price paid was $10,000.

Since then the sum of $5,000 has been raised, and the parish house will be begun this July, Deo Volente.

It is our purpose to use the parish house for a church also, until the church is built. The plans, which are being prepared by Hoppin, Koen and Huntington, include a church, a parish house, and a rectory, and will cost in the neighborhood of $75,000 to realize.

The Rev. Horace R. Fell was appointed priest-in-charge, June 1, 1905.

In April, 1906, the mission became a parish. A fund has been started for a new building.

New York, St. Ambrose's Italian Mission, 236 East 111th Street; the Rev.

ARCHDEACON OF NEW YORK. Thomas Whittaker, Treasurer.

Sunday-school: Officers and Teachers, 12; scholars, 150.

It has been found necessary to enlarge the facilities for the Mission's usefulness. The plan of increasing the seating capacity of the chapel and adding another story, surmounted by a roof garden, has been nearly carried into effect. The expense of these and other improvements has been met by the same friends who provided the funds for the purchase of the ground and for the construction of the chapel. The Sunday-school and Kindergarten, suspended during building operations, have recently been reopened, and kitchen garden and sewing school have been organized. In addition to the Men's "Confraternita" and St. Cecilia's Guild for Girls, there is a Children's Club which meets twice a week for instruction and diversion.

To insure reliable statistics, canonical provision ought to be made that will allow a rector to erase the names from the list of communicants of those known to have removed from the parish. At present, unless a letter is asked for, a rector has no right to erase any name on the list.

A Children's Service, with sermon and catechising, is held in this church every Sunday afternoon from October to June. Results of this service lead me to commend it to my brethren. If children are not taught to go to church for worship, why should we expect them to go when they are grown?

Since January, 1901, the Trustees of the Sinking Fund have paid $25,000 of the Bonded and Mortgage debt, which funds do not pass through the hands of the Treasurer of the parish.

The number of communicants last reported (300), plus the net gain during the past year (179), would give a number far in excess of the number now actually enrolled and herewith reported (390).

To explain this discrepancy it is necessary to state that just prior to my taking over the work in this parish (June, 1905), the Communicant and Family Lists had been accidentally destroyed. So, whereas a somewhat extended house-to-house canvass has been made, it would seem that there must be still many other communicants of this church that as yet I have not been able to discover.

An effort has been made to revise the list of communicants. Even now the number reported requires a stretch of the charity that hopeth for better things. On the morning December 24, 1905, the church building came very nearly being destroyed by fire that started from the overheated furnace. For ten weeks the services were omitted on account of the work of repairs and improvements. The inside of the building has been repainted, the pews stained and varnished and the entire floor re-carpeted. Part of the church lot has been enclosed with a neat wire fence. We hope to repair the bell tower and repaint the outside of the building this summer.

Three hundred and fifty-six dollars, the balance of a mortgage indebtedness of many years, has been paid through the liberal gift of a generous and faithful friend of the parish. There is now no indebtedness, and the outlook is hopeful.

On June 29, 1905, a plot of land, on the corner of Bedford Road and Sunnyside Avenue and near the present Rectory, was purchased by St. John's Guild for the site of a separate Church. The price was $3,300 and only about $1,000 now remain to be paid upon it.

St. John's Chapter of St. Andrew's Brotherhood was formed on Sunday, May 28, 1905, and is doing effective work in the Parish.

On Sunday, September 24, 1905, the Semi-Centennial of the Consecration of the Church was observed with appropriate services. The building was consecrated on Sunday, September 22, 1855, in the morning, by the then Provisional Bishop of New York, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Horatio Potter, the Rev. C. D. Jackson, of St. Peter's Church, Westchester, preaching the sermon.

During the past year the sidewalk in front of the Church has been graded to accord with the grade of the macadamized road, lately constructed. This necessitated also lowering of the carriageway and the placing of additional steps in the approach to property. A sidewalk has also been made along the Rectory property.

On October 1, 1905, the Parish celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the Consecration of the Church. In that half-century there have only been four rectorships—the Rev. Henry De Koven, with whom was associated the Rev. Frederick Sill; the Rev. J. W. Moore, the Rev. J. R. Lambert and the present Rector, who has been in charge of the Parish since July, 1899. During the 50 years 483 have been baptized, 276 confirmed, and the 7 original communicants have grown to about 150 in the Parish, which fact shows that, like all the country villages of our State, while the Church has constantly grown, she has suffered very much by removals to the cities of her young members.

A house and lot lying immediately behind the church and the adjacent church property (suitable for a rectory or for a parish house) has been purchased on very favorable terms.

The property has been conveyed to the parish vestry without any mortgage debt or incumbrance on the purchase account; a small debit balance of $110 remains to be provided for.

This purchase makes the parish the owner of the entire block in the midst of which the church stands. The value of the new purchase is about $1,500.

APPENDIX D.

CLERICAL REPORTS.

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received reports, according to the Canon, from the following clergymen of the Diocese, not having parochial or missionary charge:

THE REV. STURGES ALLEN.

"In September, 1905, I went to Sewanee, Tenn., to take charge of St. Andrew's Industrial and Training School, and for work in connection with the Sisters of St. Mary at Sewanee and Memphis. I returned to Holy Cross, West Park, the middle of December, and was there until the end of April, 1906. I went back to Sewanee in the beginning of May and remained until the end of August, 1906.

"Since that time I have been residing at Holy Cross, West Park.

"With a few exceptions, I have celebrated the Holy Eucharist daily, and said Morning and Evening Prayer every day.

THE REV. HENRY ANSTICE, D.D.,

"Has officiated every Sunday in churches in the diocese or elsewhere, and devotes his time otherwise to his duties as Secretary of the General Convention, as Financial Secretary of the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society, and to the work of other Church organizations."

THE REV. T. LEWIS BANISTER

"Has officiated in several parishes in Bermuda during the past year, and hopes soon to be at work again."

THE REV. MERRIWETHER BRODNAX

THE REV. P. K. CADY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past Conventional year his public work as a Priest has been confined to celebrating, and assisting at the celebration, of the Holy Communion at various times."

THE REV. JAS. STARR CLARK, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been unable, by reason of impaired eyesight, to take any part in the public services of the Church.

"He has, however, in the absence of the Rector, attended one funeral, reading the Burial Service largely from memory.

"He hopes, however, ere long to be able to assist in the services of the Church as occasion may require."

THE REV. ORROK COLLOQUE, PH.D.

"I report that during the past year I have held the position of Instructor in Howe School, Lima, Ind., having the department of German. I have celebrated sacraments and held services under the direction of the Rector of Howe School, and by the permission of the Bishop of Michigan City, and have filled the position of Organist of the School."

THE REV. GEORGE WILLIAM DOUGLAS, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past Diocesan year he has been unable to do duty in consequence of a surgical operation, and has been given leave of absence by the Bishop. Canon Douglas expects to return in the spring of 1907."

THE REV. HENRY A. DOWS

"Respectfully reports: That during the Conventional Year he has officiated as Chaplain of the House of the Annunciation, in New York City."

THE REV. S. T. GRAHAM.

"I have been engaged, as opportunity afforded, almost every Sunday, but mainly in St. Bartholomew's and All Angels' Parishes. I am now at work in All Angels' Parish."

THE REV. E. H. C. GOODWIN.

"I respectfully report: That during the past Conventional year I have celebrated the Holy Communion about twenty times; assisted in that and other services, every Sunday, when not prevented by illness, and performed one marriage."

THE REV. RANDALL C. HALL, D.D.

"During the past year I have assisted in the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, of New York City, and have served as Chaplain to the House of the Holy Comforter, New York City. In the latter institution one was confirmed, three were baptized hypothetically. Three were buried.

"For three months, in vacation, I conducted service in the chapel on Money Island, off Stony Creek, Conn."

THE REV. J. G. HAMMARSKÖLD

"Begs leave to report: That during the year ending June 1, 1906, he has continued to discharge his duties as superintendent of Swedish Missions; has conducted 222 services; taken part in 67; preached 178 sermons; delivered 33 addresses; administered Holy Communion 41 times; solemnized 8 marriages; baptized 16 children, and officiated at 11 funerals."

THE REV. ALONZO NORTON HENSHAW, PH.D.

"Since making my last report I have frequently officiated at Plattsburg and elsewhere in the Diocese of Albany."

THE REV. WILLIAM HUCKEL

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has engaged in the public services of the Church as occasion required."

THE REV. ARTHUR P. HUNT.

"I beg leave to report: That during the past year I have continued my work as Instructor in Ethics in the General Theological Seminary, and that I have officiated from time to time as occasion demanded."

THE REV. RALPH WOOD KENYON.

"I hereby report: That during the year last past I have performed the duties of my ministry as occasion has offered, officiating and assisting in various churches at various places. I have baptized one infant, and officiated at one marriage and two funerals."

THE REV. JOHN VAUGHAN LEWIS, D.D.

"I have to report: That during the last Conventional year I have had charge of St. James' Memorial Church, Titusville, Pa., seven months, and of Christ Church, Indiana, Pa., about three months, both in the Diocese of Pittsburg, by appointment from the Bishop of Pittsburg.

"Baptisms (inf. 17, ad. 19), 36. Confirmations, 31. Marriages, 5. Burials, 2. Services, 231. All reported in the Diocese of Pittsburg.

THE REV. W. G. W. LEWIS.

"The time for my annual report to you finds me with no material change, save that I am one year nearer my rest, the call to which I am awaiting with patience."

THE REV. ARTHUR MASON

"Has celebrated the Holy Communion seventeen times; assisted at Matins and Evensong on several occasions, and preached seventeen times."

THE REV. W. MCGLATHERY.

"I have been for a long term of years unable to do more than to assist the celebrating priest in divine service in administering the cup to the people, not being able to read even the Epistle, so that I had to report only that I could do nothing."

THE REV. EDMUND S. MIDDLETON

"Respectfully reports: That, in addition to his duties as Master at Trinity School, he has officiated each Sunday in this and neighboring Dioceses."

THE REV. GEO. L. NICHOLAS, M.D.,

"Has celebrated Holy Communion three hundred and fifty times, baptized six, and preached on Sundays and other occasions thirty-eight times."

THE REV. J. NEWTON PERKINS

"Respectfully states: That since his last report he has been regularly engaged in the duties of his office as a secretary of the American Church Building Fund Commission. During the week and on Sundays has officiated as locum tenens for his brethren in different parishes as required."

THE REV. JOHN J. ROBERTS, D.D.,

"Most respectfully reports: That his advancing years and increasing infirmities have prevented him from taking any active Church duties during the year. He is in the eighty-seventh year of his age, and on the 25th of January, 1907, 'Conversion of St. Paul,' will complete the sixty-first year of his ministry."

THE REV. WILFORD L. ROBBINS, D.D.

"I beg to report: That during the year just past I have been performing the duties incumbent on me as Dean of the General Seminary. During that time I have preached nearly every Sunday, except during the summer, in New York City and elsewhere."

THE REV. W. J. SEABURY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has attended, as usual, to the duties of his professorship at the General Theological Seminary, and has officiated, celebrating Holy Eucharist 25 times, reading Morning and Evening Prayer 38 times, preaching 4 times, baptizing 3 times, at funeral services 3 times, and assisting at other services 9 times."

THE REV. C. THEODORE SEIBT, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has occasionally assisted in the services of the Church, has solemnized one marriage, and officiated at two burials."

THE REV. J. J. ROWAN SPONG, M.A., B.C.L., LL.B.

"During the year ending August 31, 1906, I celebrated the Holy Communion 58 times, said the Litany 3 times, said Matins 5 times, Evensong 13 times, administered Holy Baptism 3 times, officiated at the Burial of the Dead 4 times, preached 37 times."

THE REV. CORNELIUS B. SMITH, D.D.,

Rector Emeritus of St. James' Church, New York City.

"During the year I have preached on most Sundays, and on some other days, by invitation of my brethren of the clergy; and have also officiated for my old Parishioners in various offices.

"Some of my time has been occupied with serving upon different Church Committees.

"During part of the summer I held services at St. James' Chapel, Mount Desert Island."

THE REV. JOHN SWORD.

"I beg leave to report: That from the time of my leaving Holy Cross Mission I held services regularly every Sunday, and most week days, in St. Martin's Church, Lumberton, N. J., with the permission of the Bishop of New Jersey."

THE REV. WALTER THOMPSON, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past Conventional year he has celebrated the Holy Communion six times, preached ten times, officiated at one marriage, two funerals, and frequently assisted at other services of the Church."

THE
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

As Adopted October 11, 1796 ; and Amended October 17, 1827 ; October 2, 1834 ;
October 4, 1839 ; September 29, 1843 ; September 26, 1850 ; September 28, 1860 ; September 28, 1882 ; September 26, 1889 ; September 14, 1902 ;
September 28, 1905, November 15, 1906.

ARTICLE I.

THERE shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese in each year, at such place as the Bishop shall appoint. It shall be held on the last Wednesday in September, unless the Bishop with the consent of the Standing Committee shall appoint another date. In case of the inability of the Bishop to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall appoint the time and place of holding the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall consist of the Bishop and the Bishop-Coadjutor (if there be one) of the Diocese and of Clerical and Lay Members.

The Clerical Members shall be those Clergymen canonically resident within the Diocese not less than six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention, who shall be either

Archdeacons of the Diocese, or settled in some Church in union with the Convention, or in the Cathedral, or employed as Missionaries under the direction of the Convention, or engaged within the Diocese as Professors or Instructors in any incorporated institution of learning, or as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated charitable institution, or Clergymen who, having attained the age of sixty-five years, shall have retired from the active work of the Ministry after holding for not less than ten years one or more of the positions hereinbefore named.

The Lay Members shall be male Delegates from the several Churches in union with the Convention, not exceeding three from each Church, chosen by the Vestry or Congregation.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with such services as shall be approved by the Bishop, or in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention ; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate in one body ; and in voting, the Clergy shall vote by individuals, and the Laity by Congregations ; and when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention, prior to the last Wednesday in September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Delegate or Delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to a vote for each Church or Chapel ; and a majority of votes of the two orders jointly shall be decisive ; but if in any case it be required by five votes, the two orders shall vote separately in the manner aforesaid, and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision. In the case of electing a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, agreeably to the mode last prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

Wherever in the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the standing Committee, in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

ARTICLE IX.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows : A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention ; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANONS.

Adopted October 2, 1834; and amended October 4, 1839; October 1, 1841; September 30, 1842; September 29, 1843; September 27, 1844; September 28 and 30, 1845; September 29, 1848; September 26, 1851; October 1, 1852; September 29, 1859; September 28, 1860; October 2, 1863; September 27, 1866; November 15, 1867; September 29, 1870; September 28, 1872; September 25, 1873; September 28, 1877; September 26, 1884; October 1, 1885; September 30 and October 1, 1886; September 29, 1887; September 27, 1888; September 26, 1889; September 25, 1890; and October 1, 1891; September 27 and 28, 1893; September 27, 1894; September 26, 1895; October 1, 1896; September 30, 1897; September 29, 1898; September 27, 1900; September 26, 1901; September 24 and 25, 1902; November 15, 1906.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

SEC. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "Of the Filling of Vacant Cures," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record ; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop ; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received, the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least thirty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least thirty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. The calling of the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the members of the Convention present, provided that evidence satisfactory to the Convention of the presence of a canonical quorum of each order be laid before the Convention by the Secretary. In such case the Secretary shall take means to secure a correct list of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates who are present at the Convention.

SEC. 16. A quorum, which shall consist of thirty Clergymen and Delegates from thirty Congregations, being present, the President, ex officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 17. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 18. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application ; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention ; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting ; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same ; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York ; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just ; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention ; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC. 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary ; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5.—Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one ; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the next stated Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and of which the collection and distribution shall not be otherwise regulated.

SEC. 2. His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee acting under its authority.

SEC. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee ; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants, Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

SEC. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors ; the name of each adult baptized ; the name of each person confirmed ; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witness or witnesses required by the civil law ; the name of each person buried ; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church ; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

The list of Communicants shall embrace all within his Cure as nearly as can be ascertained, and he shall also keep a list of the families and adult persons in his Cure, as far as practicable.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Funerals; and of the number of Communicants in his Parish or Church, and of all other matters that may throw light on the state of the same.

SEC. 4. In every case where a Parish is without a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose; and the annual Parochial Reports shall be presented or forwarded to the Bishop by the Wardens of the Parish.

SEC. 5. The Register contemplated by this Canon shall at all times be subject to inspection by the Bishop or by such person as he may appoint.

SEC. 6. Upon the dissolution of a Parish the Register, provided for by this Canon, shall immediately become the property of the Diocese, and the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention shall cause the said Register to be deposited with the Bishop, to be under his care for the legitimate purposes thereof.

CANON VIII.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

A Committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, in accordance with the Canon * thereof, to assist the Bishop in preparing a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, and a list of the Clergy, to be presented to the General Convention.

CANON IX.

Concerning Elections.

SEC. 1. Elections by ballot, when required by these Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election.

* Canon 47, § 2.

SEC. 2. The mode of conducting the nominations and elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council, shall be as follows :

Any member of the Convention may send to the Secretary, in writing, on or before the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations, signed by himself, for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and for members of the Federate Council. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the second day's session, in the form of a ballot, on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first ballot these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent ballots, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. No ballot shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled, and the number of vacancies to be filled shall be printed on each ballot.

The Secretary shall provide a board, to be hung up in a conspicuous place, near the entrance to the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations so received, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council ; and these names shall also be printed on the back of the ballot provided by the Secretary.

CANON X.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall, at each second regular annual meeting next succeeding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. It shall also elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen, as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned ; which Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies, or Provisional Deputies, for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. 2. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention, during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. The Bishop, also, from time to time shall designate one of the Provisional Deputies to supply, either temporarily or permanently, any vacancy caused by the death, absence or inability of any Deputy. During such period as shall be stated in the certificate issued to him by the Bishop, the Provisional Deputy so designated shall possess, and shall be entitled to exercise, the power and authority of the Deputy in place of whom he shall have been designated.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

CANON XI.

Of Deputies to the Federate Council.

At every stated Convention there shall be an election by ballot of eight Clergymen and eight Laymen to serve as Deputies at any meeting of the Federate Council that may be held before the next Annual Convention of the Diocese. And in case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the Deputies so elected, such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop.

CANON XII.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention a Standing Committee shall be elected by ballot, to consist of four Clergymen and four Laymen. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical members and Lay members of the Committee.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to, or enjoined upon, the Clerical members of said Committee; in which cases such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purposes shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes, and Clergymen without Cure.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the authorities of such vacant Parish to consult with the Bishop of the Diocese before proceeding to fill the vacancy.

SEC. 4. Any Clergyman without cure resident in, or visiting, this Diocese and desiring to take temporary or occasional service therein shall signify to the Bishop his wish to officiate in this Diocese. A list of such Clergymen as shall be licensed by the Bishop for such duty shall be kept at the Diocesan House. And no Rector or Parish shall employ the services of any Clergyman without cure for more than one day, unless he shall have the written license of the Bishop.

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts.

SEC. 1. The Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may determine, and from time to time may alter, the boundaries of the parishes and mission districts of this Diocese, and may constitute new parishes and mission districts, and may erect mission districts into parishes; provided that not less than twenty days' previous notice of a time and place when the Standing Committee will hear any persons interested in the matter shall in each case be given to the incumbents of such parishes or mission districts as in the opinion of the Standing Committee may be affected by the proposed action. The Bishop's certificates of the determination or alteration of the boundaries of parishes or mission districts, of the constitution of new parishes or mission districts, and of the erection of mission districts into parishes, countersigned by the President of the Standing Committee, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, to be called the Diocesan Register of Parishes and Mission Districts, and shall furnish a copy thereof, in the case of a parish or of a mission district forming part of a parish, to the Rector of the parish, who shall cause the same to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of the Vestry; or, in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, to the Society, who shall cause the same to be recorded in its Book of Minutes; or, in the case of any other mission district, to the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the district shall be situated, who shall cause such copy to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of his Archdeaconry.

SEC. 2. Wherever a chapel or a mission is maintained by a parish, if it be included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, no separate district shall be assigned to it; but if it be not included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, a separate district shall be assigned to it, which shall form part of the parish.

SEC. 3. Where in any town within this Diocese there is but one parish or mission, the limits of the town shall constitute the boundaries of the parish or mission district, and shall be so certified by the Bishop, unless upon the application of the Rector and Vestry of the parish, or of the Archdeacon in charge of the mission district, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall otherwise determine. The boundaries of a parish or mission district may include more than one town or parts of more than one town.

SEC. 4. When the boundaries of a parish or of a mission district shall have been determined by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, the territory so bounded, in the case of a parish, including a mission district forming part of a parish, shall constitute the parish or cure of the Rector thereof; in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, shall constitute the parochial cure of the Superintendent for the time being of that Society; and in the case of any other mission district shall constitute the parochial cure of the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the mission district is situated; and such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon, as the case may be, shall be deemed the incumbent of such parish or mission district; provided that nothing in this Canon shall be taken to prevent such Rector, Superintendent or Archdeacon from conferring upon the Minister in charge of any mission district such authority in respect thereto as he may think fit.

SEC. 5. In any town or borough in which a parish or a mission district shall have been constituted, a new place of worship (unless upon the site of a former one) shall not be established, nor shall a new congregation be gathered, nor shall a congregation remove from one site or place of worship to another site or place of worship, unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license therefor; provided that the Standing Committee shall communicate a copy of the Bishop's proposed license, by mail or otherwise, before they act upon it, to the incumbent of the parish or mission district within which it is intended to establish such new place of worship or to which such congregation proposes to remove, and to the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts nearest to the site of the proposed church, chapel, or other place of public worship, and to the applicant for such license, with not less than twenty-days' notice of the time and place at which the Standing Committee will hear any person interested in the matter.

SEC. 6. Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which it is proposed to prosecute such work, may be prosecuted at any place they may designate, after conference with the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts whose places of worship are nearest to the proposed site; but such work shall not be continued more than one year unless with the license of the Bishop, nor shall any building for such work be erected unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license for the establishment of a new place of public worship, or shall have constituted a new mission district or a new parish, for the continuance of such work.

SEC. 7. Nothing contained in this Canon shall be taken to restrict the power of the Bishop to license private chapels or chapels connected with institutions, nor to affect such chapels so licensed.

CANON XV.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. The fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese, now provided, together with that which may be hereafter contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund for the Diocese of New York," incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 14, 1845. The Trustees composing said corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a congregation in this Diocese to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made by said congregation in aid of the fund for the support of the Episcopate ; and in the case of a vacant parish, this duty shall devolve on the Wardens and Vestrymen. The amount of each annual collection or contribution shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and shall be reported by the Trustees to the Convention at the next stated meeting thereof, after such collection or contribution shall have been made, and shall be entered on its Journals.

SEC. 3. So long as the income of the fund is inadequate to the support of the Episcopate, and an annual assessment shall be made, under the authority of the Convention, for supplying the deficiency therein, the payment of such assessment by a Parish shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined by Section 2 of this Canon.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. A statement exhibiting the condition of the said fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON XVI.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 1. Every congregation in the Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the Day of its annual meeting, such a per cent. on the amount of the salary of its Cler-gyman as shall have been ordered by the preceding Convention, to provide for necessary expenses.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Convention to retain annually out of this fund one dollar for each Clergyman in the Diocese. The moneys thus retained shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of the General Convention at each meeting of the same.

SEC. 3. A copy of this Canon shall be transmitted annually to every Church in the Diocese by the Secretary of the Convention.

CANON XVII.

Of Contributions for Church Objects.

SEC. 1. In every Parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied.

SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the Seamen's Church Institute of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 2. (I.) The Missionary Work of the Diocese shall be conducted by a Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions, sitting as such as often as the business of the Board may demand.

SEC. 3. (I.) The Diocese shall be divided into five Archdeaconries, to be named, respectively :

1. The Archdeaconry of New York, comprising the County of New York.

2. The Archdeaconry of Richmond, comprising the County of Richmond.

3. The Archdeaconry of Westchester, comprising the Counties of Westchester, Putnam, and Rockland.

4. The Archdeaconry of Orange, comprising the Counties of Orange, Ulster, and Sullivan.

5. The Archdeaconry of Dutchess, comprising the County of Dutchess.

(II.) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three Lay Delegates from each Parish and Mission Station, elected in such manner as the By-laws of the Archdeaconry may direct, provided that such Lay Delegates from Mission Stations shall not have the right to vote upon any question involving the appropriation or apportionment of moneys. It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry [1] to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such Missionary Work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several Parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same; [2] to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all Missionaries and other agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries; [3] to have full management of its funds ; [4] to provide that careful statistics as to the population and condition of communities and the results of Missionary Work be collected and preserved.

(III.) The Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Archdeaconry, and appointed by the Bishop, and shall continue in office until his successor shall have been appointed. The nomination shall be made as soon as practicable after the occurrence of a vacancy in the office or the rejection of any previous nomination by the Bishop. It shall be his duty [1] to superintend all Missionary Work conducted by the Archdeaconry ; [2] to have direction of all Itinerant Clergy and Associated Missions ; [3] to make full and regular reports of the same to the Archdeaconry ; and [4] in the absence of the Bishop to preside at all meetings.

(IV.) Each Archdeaconry shall adopt its own by-laws, elect annually its Secretary and Treasurer, and make before the Annual Meeting of the Board of Diocesan Missions a full report of its year's work to the Board of Managers hereinafter described.

SEC. 4. (I.) There shall be a Diocesan Board of Managers, which Board shall also be the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop, the five Archdeacons, Secretaries and Treasurers, and also five Clergymen and five Laymen, elected by ballot at the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) It shall be the duty of this Board of Managers [1] to decide, with the approval of the Bishop, what proportion of the whole sum voted by the Diocese shall be raised by, and what proportion shall be expended by each Archdeaconry ; [2] to devise general plans for making Mission Work more effective, and developing a greater Missionary interest throughout the Diocese ; [3] to send to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual meeting, a report containing the following items :

- a. Statement of Missionary Work done since last report.
- b. The names of the Missionaries and Stations.
- c. An account of Annual Receipts and Expenditures, comprising all amounts received and disbursed by each Archdeaconry.
- d. A list of the Parishes contributing, and of the sums contributed by each Parish to Diocesan Missions.
- e. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary Work of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and a schedule of assessments upon the several Parishes.

(III.) Seven members of the Board of Managers, at a regularly called meeting, two of whom shall be Archdeacons, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop, one of the Archdeacons present shall be elected by the meeting to preside.

CANON XIX.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds :

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2d. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows :

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other

* "(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund ; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

2d. As to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

" . . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

" With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest :

" 1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

" 2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or infirm to continue his ministry; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

" 3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

" 4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given ceteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

funds, be divided equally between them. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

CANON XX.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz. :

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination ; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offence, may dismiss it ; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offence, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop ; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time ; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence ; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively ; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXI.

Concerning the Dissolution of the Pastoral Relation by Reason of Disability of a Minister.

Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Bishop, on competent medical testimony, that by reason of incurable mental or physical disability a clergyman has become incapable of discharging the duties of his cure, it shall be competent for the Bishop, on the application of the Vestry or Trustees of the Church, and upon reasonable notice to all the parties concerned, to dissolve the pastoral relation between such clergyman and his church.

CANON XXII.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein ; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXIII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

RULES OF ORDER.

I. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop taking the Chair, the order of procedure shall be as follows:

1. The Secretary, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

2. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10. The President shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

3. A constitutional quorum (thirty Clergymen and thirty Delegations) being present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

4. Reading of the Rules of Order.

5. The election of a Secretary and Treasurer, the former of whom shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

6. The appointment of five Standing Committees by the President:

(1) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches—to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention, in order.

(2) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(3) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(4) On the General Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(5) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

7. The appointment of Inspectors of Elections: one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical Votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Votes—for the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

8. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows; but such Reports, if already printed for circulation or ordered to be printed in the Journal, shall not be read in open Convention, unless so ordered by the Convention.

(1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.

(2) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocese.

(3) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and appointment of Trustees.

(4) Report of the New York City Mission Society.

(5) Report of the Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York.

- (6) Report of St. Stephen's College.
- (7) Report of Society for Promoting Religion and Learning.
- (8) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, and election of Trustees.
- (9) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and supplying vacancies, if any, in the Trustees.
- (10) Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

9. Miscellaneous business.

II. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

- 1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
- 2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
- 3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.
- 4. Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he should prefer another time for its delivery. If so, it shall be at any time in order.
- 5. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federatt Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.
- 6. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.
- 7. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to the officer.
- 8. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
- 9. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
- 10. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
- 11. Report of the Committee on Canons.
- 12. Reports of Special Committees.
- 13. Miscellaneous business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

- 1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
- 2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
- 3. Calling the names of members not present before.
- 4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.
- 5. Miscellaneous business.

IV. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached, or shall be pending, on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed ; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair ; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot, from among the Clergy.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging in this Diocese but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., and from 2 to 5 P.M., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 7½ to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows :

The Secretary shall call the names of the Clergy and of the Parishes entitled to vote, who, as called, are to present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant ; and if, on such second attempt, the purpose shall not be accomplished, the balloting may be resumed at the discretion of the Convention.

X. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it ; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word “ Resolved ” shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made ; no after-amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXVI. The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect any officer.

XXVII. Whenever in the Rules of Order provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.
